FRANCE WILL REJECT GERMAN REPARATIONS PLAN

BEARS NO ILL WILL OVER FREIGHT RATES

Attorney-General Manson Says Provincial Government Has No Desire For Personal Quarrel With Railways; Reviews Principles of Party In Address Delivered at Liberal Rooms.

"Speaking as a member of the Government," said Hon. A. M. Manson, Attorney-General, addressing a meeting in the Liberal rooms here last night, "I cannot make it too plain that there is no personal quarrel between the Province of British Columbia or its Government, and the railways of Canada. Why should there be? Is there a Canadian who is not proud of the Canadian Pacific Railway, one of the greatest and best managed institutions in railway history? It would be puerile to think that our Government has any personal quarrel with the men by whom the railway is managed. We have the greatest respect for that railway and for our own line, the Canadian National, and even for Mr. Lanigan, who sometimes talks very foolishly. We all say indiscreet things at times. We are firmly convinced that the management of the Canadian Pacific Railway know we are right, but they are yielding as slowly as they can. We believe firmly we are not fighting only the battles of British Columbia in this matter of freight rates. We believe we are also fighting the battle of the Canadian Pacific Railway itself. We believe a low freight rate will bring capital and population to the Province, to such an extent that the business of the Canadian Pacific Railway will become many times what it is to-day."

Compelled to Be Brief.

The Attorney-General in his remarks was hampered somewhat by the fact that circumstances compelled him to be brief. The Liberals of Ward Four held a business meeting immediately before he spoke, at which Laurence Macrae was elected secretary of the Ward Association in place of C. K. Christian, who resigned because he has accepted a position in the Government Printing Bureau. In addition to this, Capt. A. M. Aitken, who occupied the chair, reminded Mr. Manson that, as soon as his remarks were finished, a social and dance would begin, under the auspices of Ward One Association and with the Liberals of Esquimalt present by invitation. Under the circumstances he was obliged to himself to half an hour, which he did. He began by remarking that he thoroughly believed in taking every opportunity to cultivate a close acquaintance between the members of the Government and the Legislature and those whom they represent. So far as it was possible, he wanted to know the people of the province.

MEXICANS WILL DEPORT GAMBLERS

Brownville, Texas, May 2.—Americans and other foreigners who cross into Mexico to gamble or engage in any sort of vice hereafter will be deported, Mexican Consul Alonzo Uliano announced here to-day.

"The Mexican Government is sincere in its efforts to suppress gambling," the consul said, "and the Federal Government is determined to drive out foreigners who cater to vice."

MOB ATTACKED RELIGIOUS GROUP

"Holy Rollers" Barricaded Themselves in New Jersey Church

Unidentified Speaker Praised Ku Klux Klan

Bound Brook, N. J., May 2.—Police to-day sought the leaders of a mob which caused 100 "Holy Rollers" to barricade themselves in the Pillar of Fire Church here after a melee in which many women and men were injured. More than 600 men were in the attacking party which attempted to rush the stairways leading to the second floor, where the beleaguered one hundred had barricaded themselves. The first floor was a wreck as the result of a fight which began last night when an unidentified speaker extolled the Ku Klux Klan.

STRONGER AIR DEFENCES URGED

Head of British Department Says Improvement Needed

London, May 2.—Sir Samuel Hoare, Secretary of State for Air, speaking yesterday at the Constitutional Club, declared that in view of Great Britain's obligations abroad, her air forces were insufficiently strong for home defence. He appealed on behalf of the Government for help in the formation of a national air policy.

Sir Samuel expressed the view that the Empire's air communications should have a permanent place in the agenda of the Imperial Conference in the autumn, and he wanted to see the Empire take the lead in

FRANCE WARNS THE TURKS TO END SYRIAN THREAT

Constantinople, May 2.—The French Charge d'Affaires here yesterday handed a note to the Turkish Government declaring that unless the concentrations of Turkish troops on the Syrian border were immediately withdrawn France would abandon the Lausanne Conference.

EARTHQUAKE IS RECORDED HERE

Believed to Be Off Coast of Oregon

The seismograph at Gonzales Height Observatory this morning recorded an earthquake of moderate intensity which occurred at a distance of about 170 miles from Victoria. The record commenced at 8:24.30 a. m. and continued for one hour, the maximum wave being recorded at 8:24.40 a. m. The strongest movement was from north to south, and Superintendent Denison expresses the opinion that the scene of the quake was either in the State of Oregon or off the coast.

FLOOD LOSSES PUT AT $200,000

C.P.R. Estimate in Saskatchewan and Manitoba

Winnipeg, May 2.—Approximately $200,000 was the tentative estimate made to-day by Charles Murphy, General Manager of the Western Lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway, of the damage caused by recent flood conditions in Western Canada. Mr. Murphy stated the actual figures might be considerably under this when fully compiled, but stated this amount was not as heavy as might have been the case had those in charge when the devastation occurred not been so well equipped for the emergency and not taken the precautions they did as the situation developed. This estimate included all costs of repairs, labor, material and machinery, Mr. Murphy stated.

That conditions were rapidly becoming normal throughout the western division, continued Mr. Murphy, was evidenced by the large increase which had been reported in the number of cars loaded with grain Monday, as against the figures for the preceding week. For the last day of April there were more than 200 cars loaded, while last week the average was under 200 cars.

BIG TIMBER AREA TO BE DEVELOPED BY NEW RAILWAY

Line Now Being Constructed to Bring Robertson River Giants to Saws

Will Give Great Stimulus to Lumbering Operations on Cowichan Lake

Some of the finest timber on Vancouver Island will be tapped by a logging railway which is now being built along the southern shore of Cowichan Lake into the Robertson River country, according to Cowichan loggers who were in Victoria to-day. The line, work on which is proceeding rapidly now, is being constructed by the Victoria Lumber and Manufacturing Company, interests, of Chemainus, to get out enormous quantities of Douglas fir and cedar for shipment to all parts of the world.

The line will stretch from the Cowichan Lake terminus of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway, along the south shore of the lake to Bear Lake and then up Robertson River, a total distance of some thirteen miles. It will be possible to ship timber over this line to Island mills for manufacture without booming it in the lake and then loading it upon cars.

Cowichan Lake loggers who were in the city on business to-day said they expected that the line will be in operation in about three months when exploitation of the vast Robertson River forests will commence. Commencement of operations in this section is expected to provide a big stimulus to the lumbering business as large camps will be needed to log this area.

Sawmill Planned
It is said that a sawmill may be erected on Bear Lake to cut some of the timber taken from there, however, will be manufactured at Chemainus, it is understood.

A few years ago terrific storms swept through the Cowichan country and bowled over large stretches of timber. Unless these trees are taken out and made into lumber soon they will be useless. This fact, it is explained, has caused the owners of the Robertson River timber to commence construction of the line along the south side of the lake now.

The timber business is more active than ever in its history at the lake now. It is estimated that about 1,000 men are employed in the woods on the lake branch of the P. V. N. and around the lake itself now. The Cameron Lumber Company, the Genoa Bay Lumber Company, the Victoria Lumber Company, the Chemainus Lumber Company, and the Canadian Puget Sound Lumber and Timber Company, of this city, are among the large concerns logging the timber area now.

SHIPS COMPETE FOR MIGRANTS

Movement From Scotland to Canada and U.S. Grows

London, May 2.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Keen competition is arising among the steamship companies over the Scottish emigration. A total of 2,300 emigrants left Scottish ports for Canada and the United States at the last week-end and the number of emigrants departing the coming week will be larger. One liner also called at Belfast and took 290 aboard for Canada.

Several of the steamship lines are putting new ships on this service.

Women.
London, May 2.—(Canadian Press Cable)—In the House of Commons yesterday a member called attention to the fact that out of 320 emigrants who left Scotland for Canada, only twenty were women, and he asked whether arrangements could not be made to send a more equal number of men and women.

Colonel A. Buckley, secretary to the Overseas Trade Department, in reply emphasized that the Overseas Settlement Committee was fully alive to the importance of the emigration, but there were special difficulties attached. He gave assurance that every effort had been and would be made to increase the number of women emigrants.

Australia.
Sydney, N. S. W., May 2.—(Canadian Press Cable via Reuters)—The Cabinet of New South Wales has decided to extend the immigration activities of that state by permitting the residents of New South Wales to nominate persons for assisted passage money.

Desirable persons designated for migration to New South Wales who are prepared to take up occupations approved by the state and who are under fifty years of age will be assisted in paying their passage by the state.

TURK AGREEMENT NOT RECOGNIZED

British Declare Chester Concession of No Force in Iraq

Notification Is Sent to Ankara Government

London, May 2.—The British High Commissioner in Constantinople has been instructed to register an emphatic protest against the grant by the Turks of rights within the kingdom of Iraq (Mesopotamia) and to declare that Great Britain can not recognize the validity of any such grant. This was announced in the House of Commons to-day in a statement of the Foreign Office by Lieut.-Colonel Buckley, speaking for the Foreign Office.

TEN LOST LIVES IN SHIPWRECK

Four Sailors Reached Town in Philippine Islands

British Barque Amy Turner Wrecked Near Guam

Manila, May 2.—Ten lives were lost when the British barque Amy Turner was wrecked in the vicinity of Guam March 27, according to a telegram received here to-day from the Governor of the Province of Surigao, Island of Mindanao, P. I.

The message said Charles West and three other members of the crew succeeded in reaching Hinatuan, Surigao, on April 20.

The barque was loaded with coal from Newcastle, Australia.

TUG AND LAUNCH SERVING BIG RUM FLEET SEIZED

New York, May 2.—The government, centering a triangular attack on the rum fleet off the New Jersey coast, to-day had seized a tug and launch carrying provisions and fuel to the alien craft anchored outside the three-mile limit.

PREMIER OLIVER GOES TO KAMLOOPS

Addresses Manufacturers in Vancouver on Freight Rates

Voices Hope of Early Equalization Success

Vancouver, May 2.—Premier Oliver left here this morning for Kamloops where he is to deliver a speech on freight rate equalization.

Last evening he addressed the executive committee and the city members of the British Columbia Manufacturers' Association briefly on the freight rates question and the steps the province was taking to secure equalization of the costs of transportation of the East and West. He voiced the hope that success would soon wait on the efforts of British Columbia to have abolished the high freight rates now in force.

A delegation from the Park Board, headed by Will C. Shelly, later interviewed the Premier about the Government reserve in Kettle and discussed the advantages of the city obtaining a title to the land.

BRITISH COMMENT ON LIQUOR RULING

No Alcohol on Ships Within U.S. Three-mile Limit

Papers Admit a New Situation Has Been Created

London, May 2.—All manner of views, "from grave to gay, from lively to severe," are expressed in the London newspapers in reference to the United States Supreme Court's liquor ruling, but the grave and severe are more numerous.

Among the facetious suggestions is one that Great Britain retaliate by placing a ban on chewing gum and compel United States ships to dump their supply of this commodity in the English Channel. According to one legal view of the situation, Great Britain is in a helpless position and must accept the United States law, making the best of it.

The Morning Post editorially contends that the strict right of the United States in this situation can not be questioned and continues: "If the United States bans a vessel which carries alcohol, why should not Great Britain ban a ship that lacks it?"

A Conflict

The Westminster Gazette says: "The ruling threatens to affect the liberties of the citizens of several countries and to lead to a direct conflict between the laws of the United States and other nations. It is to be hoped the United States Government and people will have the good sense not to allow matters to be pressed to this length."

"It is obvious," says The Daily News, "that one nation has established the principle that it can interfere at will with the freedom of the world's maritime commerce, other nations will follow suit and produce a state of chaos which may easily develop into a general quarrel."

Called Arrogance.

London, May 2.—A high-handed piece of arrogance toward foreigners, "is the way The Star characterizes the decision of the United States Supreme Court against the transportation of liquor within the three-mile limit by American or foreign vessels."

"The United States is of all civilized states the most opposed to the Russian Government, yet the two countries are now as one," says The Star. "The decision of the Soviet Government to seize and imprison the crew of a British trawler caught fishing prohibited in the Bering Sea, is simply a piece of high-handed arrogance in the face of the plain doctrine of modern international law that the limit of territorial waters is three miles. The decision of the United States Supreme Court that neither American nor foreign ships may carry intoxicating liquors into American waters is an equally high-handed piece of arrogance toward foreigners."

A Municipal Law.

"This is no question between the relative merits of the 'wets' and 'drys,'" it is an attempt to apply an American municipal law to foreign ships in the Bering Sea, which is a part of their national territory while they are in American waters and ports.

"It is admitted that no foreign ship may use its national character to land prohibited goods in country whose port it enters or to shelter fugitives from its laws or do any act which is prohibited by its laws."

MOSCOW PAMPHLETS FOUND IN WINNIPEG

Propaganda Declared Carried on Among Foreigners There

Ottawa, May 2.—That propaganda of a sinister nature was being carried in the homes of the foreign quarter in Winnipeg was the chief feature of a report which Rev. S. J. Farmer, retired Baptist Minister, residing in Ottawa, presented yesterday before a meeting of the local auxiliary of the Canadian Bible Society.

Mr. Farmer stated that one of the society's collectors had gathered literature of a sinister nature, which he had found in the homes of the foreign quarter in Winnipeg. This literature, of which Mr. Farmer had several exhibits, gave evidence of being printed in Moscow, Chicago and Toronto and was being distributed in English, Ukrainian and Polish-speaking homes.

Mr. Farmer stated that its purpose seemed to be two-fold—first, to eliminate the love of God from the minds of the people, and second, to array labor against capital.

WOMAN AND MAN HANGED IN ALBERTA

Mrs. Florence Lassandra and E. Picariello Executed

Declared Themselves Innocent of Murder of Constable

Edmonton, May 2.—Emilio Picariello and Florence Lassandra, slayers of Alberta Provincial Constable Steve O. Lawson at Coleman in September last, expiated their crime on the gallows at Fort Saskatchewan Jail at sunrise this morning.

Both walked firmly to the scaffold. Both declared their innocence of the crime. Only Mrs. Lassandra, with her wild eyes fixed on the morning glory of a sky she must never see again, cried out in passionate protest: "Pic, he had an old and died. I never did any harm to anybody in this world."

Picariello's only other plea, after declaring his innocence, was addressed to Father Fidelis, Franciscan friar of the Little Rock Catholic parish and cure of the village church that stands hard by the prison gates. "Don't let them cover up my eyes, father," he begged. "Please don't let them cover up my eyes."

The priest, in gentle tones, explained that the law demanded the adjustment of the black cap, and Picariello submitted without further protest. Two minutes later he dropped into eternity.

The man was called first to the gallows at 5:15 a.m. The fatal bolt was drawn. At 5:25 Dr. H. H. Mooney, the jail physician, pronounced Mrs. Lassandra, white and shaking, but maintaining her composure to the last, was summoned to the scaffold at 5:31 a.m. Eleven minutes later her body was cut down.

Inquest.
The slow grinding mill of justice, without a falter, moved on to the corner's inquest and the issuing of the necessary certificates.

Over the scaffold, the morning breeze fluttered in the air the black flag of death. Emilio Picariello and Florence Lassandra, were gone before a higher bar of justice.

Rain Fell.
At intervals through the night before the executions rain fell heavily, almost blurring the lights of the prison, as seen from the little town beyond the gates. All night long in the death cells burned the light by which the faithful Father Fidelis, Book in hand and beads at his waist, sought to prepare the doomed man and woman to meet their God.

From cell to cell he went, in his brown friar's robe and his leather shoes, to comfort the prisoners.

BIRKENHEAD REBUKED SIR JOHN SIMON

Said Eminent Barrister Should Appear Before House of Lords

London, May 2.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Lord Birkenhead, sitting as President of the House of Lords in its capacity as a judicial body, administered a rebuke to Sir John Simon, one of the most prominent members of the Bar in this country and one of the Liberal leaders in the House of Commons. Sir John was not present, but an appeal was made on counsel's attention and before absenting himself a leading counsel should apply for the indulgence of the House.

He added that Their Lordships had no intention of departing from the rule. Sir John's junior, however, proceeded with his arguments without commenting on Lord Birkenhead's remark.

ELLANGOWAN WON RACE IN ENGLAND

Knockando Second in Two Thousand Guineas; D'Orsay Third

London, May 2.—Lord Rosebery's Ellangowan, a bay colt by Lemberg out of Lammermuir, won the Two Thousand Guineas Stakes at Newmarket to-day. Lord Wolvington's bay colt Knockando, by Phalaris out of Spear Bridge, was second, and Mrs. Whitburn's brown colt D'Orsay was third. Eighteen horses ran.

Ellangowan won by a head, with a half-length separating Knockando and D'Orsay.

The betting on the winner was 7-1 against, 25 to 1 against Knockando and 5 to 1 against D'Orsay. Ellangowan is entered for the Derby.

BERLIN NOW OFFERS 30,000,000,000 MARKS AS TOTAL PAYMENT

Suggests She Have No Obligation to Allies In Cash or Kind Above That; Flat Rejection By France and Extension of Occupied Area Foreshadowed.

Paris, May 2.—The new German proposals for a reparations settlement are so far from acceptable to France that a flat rejection of them is regarded by persons close to Premier Poincare as inevitable. This rejection, it is stated, will probably be followed by an extension of the occupation of the right bank of the Rhine.

Berlin, May 2.—Germany's latest reparation offer proposes that the sum total of her obligations in cash and kind under the Versailles Treaty should be fixed at 30,000,000,000 gold marks.

The German Government, in a note made public here to-day simultaneously with its receipt by the Entente and Washington Governments, proposes that 20,000,000,000 of the total should be raised before July 1, 1927, by a bond issue at normal rates of interest on the international money market. Five billion would be raised before July 1, 1929, in the same manner and the remainder similarly before July 1, 1931.

The note asserts that Germany, in accordance with existing treaties, will also make payments in kind which are to be credited to her account.

The note expresses the Government's conviction that the new proposals represent the utmost limit of Germany's capacity to pay, and expresses grave doubt as to whether the offer does not exceed her ability in view of heavy dislocation and weakening of the Reich's economic organization caused by the Ruhr occupation.

TWO RAIDERS IN IRELAND WERE EXECUTED TO-DAY

Dublin, May 2.—The execution of two more irregulars was announced by the Free State authorities this afternoon.

The men, Christopher Quinn and William Shaughnessy, had been found guilty of killing a Free State soldier at Ennis, County Clare, on April 21. The executions took place at Ennis.

BRITISH TRADE IS IMPROVING

Conditions Summarized by American Representatives in London

1,239,300 Unemployed; the Lowest in Two Years

London, May 2.—Despite the disputes brewing in the industrial shipping and railway worlds, British trade generally keeps improving, reports a summary of business conditions in the United Kingdom issued by the American Chamber of Commerce in London.

Iron and steel prices reached a peak in April.

The week ended April 14 saw record coal shipments. Production reached 5,776,000 tons, the largest since the war. There is pressure for immediate delivery, but forward business is easing.

Fifteen vessels aggregating 51,751 tons, were launched by Clyde builders during the month, says the survey, while one large Belfast firm has received an order for the construction of three liners for a single company.

The manufacturers of motorcycles are taking good business. On the other hand the depression in the cotton industry continues and the shoe trade is also slack.

The number of unemployed has been reduced to 1,239,300, the lowest figure in two years.

DECLARE FOR CIVIL SERVICE CHANGE

T. Mulvey Says Patronage Best; Sir J. Pope Scores Commission

Ottawa, May 2.—Two deputy heads, before the Civil Service Committee of the House of Commons last night, attacked the present method of making civil service appointments.

"I believe patronage is the only democratic way of appointing to the civil service," declared Thomas Mulvey, Under-Secretary of State.

"The present inflexible, rigid, mechanical, iron-bound system," said Sir Joseph Pope, Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs, "destroys initiative, kills individual effort and is subversive of discipline."

The present unconstitutional and hugely expensive system should be done away with as soon as circumstances would permit, added Sir Joseph.

He also proposed that the various Governments should provide police attaches for all foreign Embassies.

BRITAIN DID NOT AID GERMANS TO PREPARE OFFER

London, May 2.—It was authoritatively stated this afternoon that the British Government had been at some pains to make clear to every party that Great Britain was in no way connected with the German reparations note and that she had no hand whatever in framing its terms, as had been suggested in certain quarters.

NO CLUBROOMS FOR SEVEN

Burnside Bowling Club Does Not Intend to Build Club House

The Tillamook Voters' Association, which has been desirous of securing premises for meetings and functions for some time, endeavored to arrange last night some understanding with the Burnside Bowling Club that it might have the right to use the proposed clubrooms of the latter organization. Col. Ridgway Wilson was instrumental in calling the meeting last evening, hoping to have support from other organizations in the Burnside district.

However, since the bowling club does not intend to build this year on account of a lack of funds, the seven ratepayers were disappointed in their hopes for some building they might find useful. The bowling club pointed out that unless the Tillamook voters would put up a sum of money for the building they could not afford to go to any expense with a view to renting their rooms in future.

REFUSES MOTION TO DISMISS JURY

Plaintiff Still on Stand in Newcombe-Green Trial

An application to dismiss the jury in the Newcombe vs. Green case and have the trial continued before the judge alone because of the complicated nature of the evidence, which was made this morning by W. C. Moreby on behalf of the defendant, but was refused.

Mrs. Sarah Newcombe then continued her evidence, being cross-examined by Mr. Moreby. She declined to admit that she had expected to pay costs if she lost the case. She first formed the opinion that he was negligent when he failed to pay over the $1,500 in his hands, as he had agreed to do. She admitted that she owed Mr. Green for his services in connection with this and other matters.

"Let us get down to business, Mr. Moreby," suggested the witness, "and show the jury what the matter is."

Mr. Moreby, despite this request, went on with the cross-examination in his own way.

"You believe Mr. Green put up an honest defence for you?" he asked.

"I suppose he did the best he could," was the reply.

"How could I deceive him?" said the witness in answer to another question.

"I did everything he asked me to do," was the answer to my lawyer to see that a document was correct before I signed it. What do I hire him for?"

"Why should he have it wrong?" "That's what I want to know, too."

"You don't blame Mr. Green because the judge did not believe your evidence?"

"Well, probably he was not to blame for that."

Was Willing to Quit.
A considerable number of letters that had passed between witness and J. R. Green were put in. After Mrs. Newcombe had written that she did not want his services longer, Mr. Green replied that he was willing to quit.

That this would suit him, "as it is apparent you expect to pay nothing for legal services if you can avoid it," he added that some of her affairs were in such condition as to require a solicitor and she had better get somebody else.

Another letter from Mr. Green to S. T. Hankey set forth that Mr. Green had acted for the Newcombes as solicitor for a period of years and all he had received was $18. He added that they still owed him about $2,000.

In the Yorkshire matter, he said, he had relied on the statements made to him by Mrs. Newcombe, and he had turned out to be without foundation. As to his bill, he was willing to leave the matter to an impartial solicitor, or barrister, or business man for complete adjustment.

The correspondence showed that at one time Mrs. Newcombe held securities worth about $5,000 while her husband held other worth about $40,000.

Question of Securities.
"It appears," remarked the judge, "that it was arranged she held the securities and he had the money."

"Did you tell Mr. Green," asked Mr. Moreby, "that you had a high opinion of W. J. Taylor as a lawyer?"

"I remember saying I heard he was a good man."

"Did you tell him to get Mr. Taylor to act on the appeal?" "No, I never. I didn't know Mr. Taylor was acting."

Mrs. Newcombe was still in the witness box when court adjourned for lunch.

Local L. R. Steel Shareholders Defer Action

A meeting of the Victoria shareholders of the L. R. Steel was held in the New Thought Temple last night to discuss what should be done in regard to the suggestion that an assessment of ten per cent. be made on the shareholders with a view to getting the concern out of the hands of the receiver and starting it going again on its own feet.

The feeling among those present was that it would be unwise to take any steps just now, before receiving a definite report of just how matters stand. It is probable therefore that the local shareholders for the most part will satisfy themselves by holding on to their stock in the meantime, and waiting to see what will happen.

OBITUARY

There passed away last evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. Dalgleish, 1260 Denman Street, Bessie McDonald, widow of the late John McDonald, of Hillyard, Wash., aged eighty-one years.

She was a resident of this city for the past seven years and a resident of Canada forty years. She leaves to mourn her loss two sisters, Mrs. Dalgleish, of this city, and Mrs. Edward Negus, of Essex, England. The remains are reposing at the Thomson Funeral Home, 1625 Quadra Street, where the funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. W. G. Wilson, of the First Presbyterian Church, will conduct the services. The remains will be laid to rest in Ross Bay Cemetery.

The death took place suddenly yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. Tolmie, of Captain William Davidson Hunter, aged seventy-seven years. Born in Durham, England, he had been a resident of this city for the past twelve years, formerly of Lindsay, Ontario. The deceased is survived by one daughter, Miss Maude Hunter, at present in England, and a son, George R. and Richard C. Hunter, of Mt. Tolmie, Dr. Frederick R. Hunter of Canyon City, Oregon, and Wilbert T. Hunter, of Vernon, B.C. He was a veteran of the 4th battalion and served under General Hughes. The funeral arrangements, which are in the hands of the Sands Funeral Chapel, will be announced later.

The remains of Gustav Albin Nelson, whose death occurred last Thursday at St. Joseph's Hospital, were laid to rest in Ross Bay Cemetery Monday afternoon. Service was held at the Thomson Funeral Home, 1625 Quadra Street, at 2 o'clock, when the Rev. P. E. Dalgleish, of the Lutheran Church, conducted service. The hymns sung were "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Rock of Ages." There were many friends present, and a profusion of beautiful floral designs covered the casket, and hearse, showing the high esteem in which the late Mr. Nelson was held by his many friends. The following acted as pallbearers: E. Olson, C. Strom, H. Johnson, O. Molin, H. Molline and A. Erickson.

The remains of the late Hannah Jane Green, whose death occurred last Thursday were laid to rest in Ross Bay Cemetery yesterday afternoon. Service was held at the Thomson Funeral Home, 1625 Quadra Street, at 2:30 o'clock, when the Rev. P. A. Chadwick, M.A., of St. John's Church officiated. The hymn sung was "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Rock of Ages." There were many friends present, and a profusion of beautiful floral designs covered the casket, and hearse, showing the high esteem in which the late Mrs. Green was held by her many friends. The following acted as pallbearers: R. Walker, H. W. Gibson, William Morrison, G. Giesman, R. W. Morrison and H. Hood.

The funeral of baby Keith Slater, the eight-months' old twin son of Captain Keith Slater, took place yesterday afternoon, at 3:45 o'clock, at the Sands Funeral Chapel. Relatives and many friends were present, and a beautiful service was held by the Rev. W. J. Simpson, D.D., officiated and the hymns sung were: "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." Interment was made in Brethour's Cemetery, at Sidney.

The funeral of the late Charles Barry McDonnell was held this morning from the Sands Funeral Chapel at 9:30 o'clock, when the Rev. P. A. Chadwick, M.A., of St. John's Cathedral where Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father Silver. The floral emblems were so profuse that an extra carriage was necessary to carry them to the cemetery, where Rev. Father Wood officiated at the graveside. Among the mourners was a big delegation from the B. C. Telephone Company, and the late Mr. McDonnell was employed as sales manager. The pallbearers were: Messrs. N. J. Dunlop, T. P. Waters, George Simpson, W. J. Warren, F. Cooper, and F. C. Patterson.

The funeral of the late J. T. McDonald will be held from the B. C. Funeral Parlors at 2:15 Friday afternoon.

which conflicts with the peace and good order of that country. Therefore any system, however strict, that prevents smuggling liquor from foreign countries to America is a step in the right direction.

The three-mile limit is quite justifiable. But the claim to prevent foreign liquor from bringing liquor into American ports under bond is, as a minority of the Supreme Court recognized, unjust and unreasonable in principle, apt to lead into international misunderstanding.

The right to decide the dietary of the passengers of a foreign ship after it has left American waters until it next visitational port, perhaps 1,000 miles away.

Tramples on Rights.
"It simply tramples on the rights of foreign ships, sailors and passengers with a freedom and violence which enables us to understand the value of indignation protests, which during the Nineteenth Century issued from American lips in regard to England's enforcement of her maritime law."

BEAR ADRESSES C.P.M. SHAREHOLDERS

Annual Meeting of Company Held in Montreal

Montreal, May 2.—The annual meeting of the Canadian Pacific Railway was held at the head office to-day in the presence of a large gathering of directors and shareholders. The business done was entirely of a routine nature.

In his annual address E. W. Beatty, the president, said:

"The active business conditions which continued at the end of last year continued during the first three months of the present year, involving a moderate increase in the gross revenue of the company over the same period of 1922."

"Traffic would undoubtedly have been much larger and a free movement of goods and passengers would have been the extraordinary severe winter, particularly in Canada. These conditions were accentuated in traffic consequences by the slow movement of the Canadian cars from the United States and embargoes placed by our connecting American railways due to unsatisfactory conditions on the line."

"With the termination of winter there has been an appreciable improvement in traffic which is being felt by all Canadian companies. The net results during the first three months were of course seriously affected by the severe weather conditions under which the operations of the line were conducted."

Operations Satisfactory.
"Results of the operations for 1922 were under the circumstances satisfactory, especially in view of the adverse business conditions which extended during the last four months of the year. The imposition of the lower scale of rates under what is known as the Crow's Nest Pass agreement, however, has had results not fully appreciated by the public. The net result during the first three months of the year, however, has been a contribution to an uneven rate structure which can only be removed when operating costs are lowered as a result of the removal of the Crow's Nest Pass agreement."

"If a suggestion made by the transportation companies last year had been adopted freight rate reductions could have been effected in an orderly and uniform way and without any dislocation of or discrimination against commodity traffic generally."

Immigration.
"Prospects for the immigration into Canada of the colonies during the first four months of this year. The agreement lately completed between the Imperial and Dominion Governments for joint action under the Empire Settlement scheme, the expectation of still greater numbers of colonists from Great Britain."

"The countries of Northern Europe, particularly Sweden, Denmark, Norway and Sweden, which were neutral during the war and which therefore suffered no loss of man-power owing to war activities, and from which there has been a large emigration of their nationals."

Restrictions Removed.
"The Government has recently through the removal of restrictions which prevented the entry into Canada of citizens of certain countries, opened the door to the admission of immigrants of the highest type, men not only trained to agriculture, but also to other occupations in their crafts, with a reputation for hard work and thrift which will place almost beyond question their success in Canada."

ARBITRATION S GERMANY PLAN

Berlin Suggests Scheme for French-German Security

Berlin, May 2.—Germany, in her reparations proposals, submitted to-day, advances a proposal that security as between France and Germany be attained by an agreement to submit any future conflicts to arbitration or other reconciliatory processes.

The German Government, says the note, is prepared, as was its intention in proposing the conclusion of a Rhine pact, to accept any agreement calculated to secure peace based on reciprocity.

The German Government, it adds, is prepared to accept any agreement binding on both Germany and France to submit all conflicts to arbitration or other reconciliatory processes.

patterns. Both prisoners appeared calm and ready to meet their fate. Mr. Moreby, who acted as counsel for the prisoners, found them bearing up well. "I'll go to the scaffold like a soldier," Mrs. Lassandra said as the cold, pale gleam of the early dawn shot across the clouded sky.

Down in the village a cock crowed. The chorus was taken up by every chattering bird within hearing distance. It seemed, and there is in the death cells must have heard, and hearing must have felt the near approach of death.

All through the night guards from the Provincial Police barracks patrolled every entrance to the prison grounds, loaded carbines ready for any trespasser who should fail to account for himself.

Two prison dogs roamed the grounds of lay beneath the lighted windows of the death cells. Not a soul trod those ill-starred acres until in that hour before the dawn, the hangman, with soft tread, walked down the gravel path to the great barred doors.

Fort Saskatchewan, Alta., May 2.—The double hanging of Emilio Picariello and Mrs. Florence Lassandra, convicted murderers of Provincial Constable S. O. Lawson at Coleman, Alberta, last September, was carried out at the provincial jail here at daylight this morning. Picariello paid the penalty at 5:10 and Mrs. Lassandra at 5:15. Both protested their innocence to the last.

Mrs. Lassandra is the first woman to be hanged in Canada in twenty-four years and the fifth since Confederation.

Baffled at every turn in their long fight for freedom, Picariello, "King of the Run Runners" as he was known in the Crow's Nest Pass, and his accomplice, Mrs. Lassandra, spent the last night of their lives in a resigned condition in the jail here.

Denied Guilt.
Just before dying Picariello stated: "You are hanging an innocent man. God help me."

His request to the priest was that the black cap should not be put over his eyes, but this was not permitted, as the priest authorities had no authority to omit that act.

Mrs. Lassandra's statement on the scaffold was: "Why do you hang me when I did not do anything? Is there anyone here who has any pity?"

Just before the trap was sprung she forgave everybody.

No Reprieve There.
Sheriff John Rae of Edmonton, in charge of the execution, decreed last night that the press would be excluded from the scene of the double hanging in the jail courtyard, and under the same orders only meagre information could be obtained as to the arrangements.

Picariello, who followed shortly afterward by Mrs. Lassandra who, it was claimed at the preliminary hearing and Assize Court trial, was the one who actually shot Constable Lawson in his own doorway at Coleman while his two children looked on.

According to Sheriff Rae, the prisoners went to their deaths in good mental and physical condition and the woman seemed to have the most fortitude and vitality. Both ate a normal breakfast and spent a good night.

Outside of the coroner's jury of six, there were but two civilians at the hanging and a few officers of the law.

Well Guarded.

MIGRATION GIVES MUTUAL BENEFIT

British Commons Hears Statement on Empire Movement

London, May 2.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Lieut.-Colonel Albert Buckley, Secretary of the Overseas Trade Department, replying to a question in the House of Commons yesterday as to whether figures on the emigration from Canada and the immigration into the Dominion in the last fifty years would be borne in mind by the Overseas Settlement Committee when considering any schemes for further depopulating the rural areas of Great Britain, said he thought the question was aware of the intention of the Empire Settlement Act, under which the Overseas Settlement Committee was doing its work.

The basis of all the schemes of migration, he said, was the mutual benefit to be derived by the migration of suitable persons.

Replying to another question, Col. Buckley said his own estimate of any evidence that the Empire Settlement Act was leading to a reduction in population in the United Kingdom.

NAVAL VOTE IS NOT CUT DOWN

Proposals of British Government Supported by Commons

London, May 2.—The Government had an easy Parliamentary victory when George Lambert's motion to reduce the naval vote, as a protest against the expenditure of £11,000,000 to complete the naval base at Singapore, was defeated in the House of Commons by 253 to 24.

In defending the Government's proposals, "Command of the seas was what won the Great War," said the First Lord. "But we do not possess such command. We are not in a position to-day, nor shall we be for many years to come, to put a battle fleet into the Pacific, or even as far as Singapore."

"In these waters, with their immense consequences from a strategic viewpoint to the whole Empire, we are helpless and reliant on the good will of friendly and lately Allied powers. But no self-respecting power can afford indefinitely to be dependent on another power for its security and even its existence."

Pennsylvania is increasing its public motor camp grounds to twenty-nine.

JOHN BIEHLER, OLD-TIME CITIZEN, DIED IN OTTAWA

Ottawa, May 2.—John Biehler, a resident of Ottawa since before Confederation and a veteran of the Peninsular Wars, is dead. Mr. Biehler was born in Alsace-Lorraine, seventy-nine years ago and came here when eighteen years old. He fired the first of three salutes from Parliament Hill on Confederation Day.

ONLY A HOG.

Windsor, May 2.—Essex County's mysterious three-horned animal, the son of Grand-Maria's Road, has been identified as an escaped prize hog. The hog, one of the largest in the county, its owner claiming, has been missing since last Wednesday, when neighboring farmers first saw the "yellow animal, four feet long, with three horns," chasing cows.

DR. BANTING TO BE RESEARCH PROFESSOR

Bill Before Ontario Legislature Recognizes Discoverer of Insulin

Toronto, May 2.—Premier Drury's bill to confer recognition upon Dr. F. G. Banting, discoverer of insulin, and his assistant, Dr. C. H. Best, by creating Dr. Banting a professor of medical research, encountered severe criticism in the Legislature last night from members who thought that the proposal conveyed insufficient recognition to the eminent services of Dr. Best and Dr. Banting.

G. H. Ferguson, Conservative leader, strongly urged the creation of a fund of $100,000 from which deserving men of the calibre of the two under discussion could draw funds up to $10,000 a year.

Dr. Forbes Godfrey, Conservative, West York, appealed to the House to put these men on a financial basis where they need never fear that the reward for gratuitous service in the best years of their lives would be poverty in their old age. He also appealed to the Government to make the insulin treatment free to the 700 or 800 Ontario sufferers needing it. He said the rich and poor should have an equal chance.

Premier Drury, in reply, said the bill as drafted met the approval of all parties, including Dr. Banting.

The bill was given second reading.

$1,893,700 FOR METHODIST WORK

Toronto, May 2.—In accordance with the decisions of the general conference of the Methodist church, requirements totalling $1,893,700 for educational, religious, and social service, $75,000; church and parsonage loans, $5,250; superannuation from circuits and missions, $227,500; Ministers and probationers, $115,000; General Conference Funds, $53,540.

These decisions were approved at a general meeting of the secretaries held here yesterday.

Work for the current year has been planned on the basis of the estimated outlays as follows: Missions, $1,225,000; education, $154,000; religious education, $43,000; evangelism and social service, $75,000; church and parsonage loans, $5,250; superannuation from circuits and missions, $227,500; Ministers and probationers, $115,000; General Conference Funds, $53,540.

MAN KILLED WIFE AND ENDED HIS OWN LIFE

Minneapolis, Minn., May 2.—After fatally beating his wife with a baseball bat in their apartment here last night, Ole Sandbeck, thirty-eight, a shoemaker, slashed his throat with a razor and fell from a rear porch, forty feet, to his death. Mrs. Sandbeck died an hour after the attack without regaining consciousness.

Mrs. Sandbeck was preparing dinner when her husband came home. Her brother, Peter Moen, went out into the yard to get the two Sandbeck children. When he returned, he said he found Sandbeck standing over his wife holding a bloody baseball bat in his hands. Moen rushed out to get help. When he returned, Sandbeck was found on the ground dead.

Moen said Sandbeck had been ill and he believed he had become suddenly insane. Mrs. Sandbeck was thirty-three years old.

BOY SCOUTS REPORT ENJOYABLE OUTING

Successful Annual Daffodil Show Is Held at Alberni

Special to The Times. Alberni.—The Alberni Boy Scouts to the number of fifteen returned on Wednesday last from Victoria, where they had been to attend the grand rally of scouts to meet their chief, Sir Robert Baden-Powell. All are enthusiastic over the great welcome accorded and the splendid arrangements made for looking after them while they were there. His Worship the Mayor, Jas. R. Motion, H. A. Hoard and Scoutmaster J. B. Watson placed their cars at the disposal of the scouts, thus enabling them to make the trip. They started away from here on Monday morning at 9 o'clock and stopped at the Nanaimo River for lunch, arriving at Victoria at 6 p.m., to find that J. C. Anthony, secretary at the headquarters in Victoria, had made all necessary arrangements for the scouts and their accompaniment of them during their stay. Scoutmaster Watson reports that the Alberni troop was especially complimented by the hillside and the rally upon their having come such a long distance to take part in his welcome.

On Wednesday morning the return journey was commenced, stopping at Nanaimo River for lunch, and while there they had the pleasure of again meeting Sir Robert, who was taking a motor tour of the East Coast, and he again complimented them upon their splendid showing. The cubs to the number of twenty-four, accompanied by the scouts who had been unable to make the trip and a large number of private cars drove out as far as E. Goodall's and met the boys as they returned and accompanied them the rest of the way home, where the president of the Scouts Association, Rev. G. A. Bagshaw, made a few remarks welcoming them home again, and the boys dispersed to their several homes after giving three hearty cheers for those who had made their trip possible.

Daffodil Show. The annual daffodil show was held on Friday last in Clarke's Hall, when this spacious building was well filled with the beautiful blooms of the various daffodils, narcissi and tulips. Mrs. Leather, of Duncan, who acted as the judge, stated after completing her labors that it was a wonderful display and showed that the committee had spared no effort to make it the huge success that it was. The following is a list of the prize winners:

Trumpets, A class, three blooms—First, Mrs. Hart; second, Mrs. Hart; third, Mrs. Swayne; second, Mrs. Hart.

H. G. Price, who will investigate the possibilities of a reduction of rate and report back to the Directors. Regarding the C. N. R. level crossing at Colwood the President reported that new planking has been put in and the Government will put up a warning notice at the crossing. The Directors will press for stricter attention to blind crossings. A communication from the Island Racing Association was received, offering an amateur racing day in Metehosin. The proposal will be considered in connection with the fall fair.

Regulations received regarding the importation of pure-bred rams from England were thoroughly discussed. In response to a communication from Mayor Hayward regarding the Maytime Frolic, it was decided to enter a District float in the parade. H. G. Price, vice-president of the Association, was unanimously elected chairman of the committee, and all arrangements will be left on his hands.

The President, C. E. Whitney-Griffiths, will arrange with Cecil Tice for a field demonstration in connection with potato growing to be held in the district. The resignation of H. Pruey, as secretary of the Association owing to his leaving the district, was received with regret, and H. R. Brown consented to act in that capacity until the end of the year. For the benefit of members it will be noted that Mr. Brown's address is R. M. D. No. 1, and his phone number, Bel. 35X.

Table base, daffodils or narcissi—First, Dr. Hilton; second, Mrs. Gullid.

Table vase, any other flowers—First, Mrs. Hart.

Basket of daffodils or narcissi—First, Dr. Hilton; second, Mrs. Freese.

Grand display of daffodils and narcissi—First, Dr. Hilton; second, E. M. Whyte; third, Mrs. Garrard.

Display of tulips—First, Mrs. Hodgson.

The dance held after the show was a great success, and all those present enjoyed themselves to the full. The next show under the auspices of the Horticultural Society will be the tulip show on May 12 in the G.W. V.A. Hall, Port Alberni. The society plans to run a rose and iris show in June and a sweet pea show in August.

Special to The Times. Metehosin.—The Directors of the Metehosin District Farmers' Institute met at the residence of the President, C. E. Whitney-Griffiths, on Monday night, April 30. A communication from the South Vancouver Island Potato Association, contained the announcement of a forthcoming meeting at which the by-laws will be presented. C. Tice, Provincial Potato Inspector, wrote regarding the certification of potatoes grown in the district from certified seed.

Members of the Institute growing potatoes under Government inspection are the Whitney-Griffiths Bros., who have one-third acre under "Early Ohio" and one acre under "Sir Walter Raleighs;" the Dash Bros., one-half acre of "Gold Coin;" A. Wale, of Langford, one acre Early St. George, and one-half acre of "Early Rose;" and George Hall, Rocky Point, who is specializing in "Up to Date," the acreage of which is at present unknown. As the result of a discussion regarding the Sprinkler Water rate, the matter was left in the hands of the highest marks in the entrance examinations, this to be open to the children of North Saanich.

Arrangements were made to again have Children's Day on the athletic ground, on Monday, June 4, as June 3, the King's birthday, falls on a Sunday. A band will be in attendance. There will be a procession with May Queen, sports, coconut shies and general sports. It was arranged to nominate a May Queen, and arrangements for this were left in the hands of W. Wakefield, editor of The Review. In the evening a dance will be held in Herquist Hall, the arrangements for which are in the hands of Mrs. Hambley and Mrs. Crossley.

The children's floral service in the Union Church on Sunday evening was very pretty. The church was crowded. Rev. T. Griffiths preached. Miss Dames, of Victoria, sang. The choir rendered special music. The flowers were given to the sick.

COLWOOD NEWS NOTES. Special to The Times. Dr. R. Feltz and Nurse Kelly will be in attendance at Colwood School on Friday morning.

A special meeting will be held in Colwood on May 11 to discuss the matter of the building of a new schoolroom.

FALSE PRETENCES CHARGED. Brockville, Ont., May 2.—John Stockdale, of Montreal, a stock salesman, is a prisoner in the county jail on remand for a week on a charge of having obtained $440 by false pretences from Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeWolf, Brockville, through the sale of L. "My Heart Would Palpitate, I Had Weak Spells"

Mrs. L. Whiting, 202 King St. West, Brockville, Ont., writes:

"I took very sick with my nerves and stomach, and seemed to be all run down. At times my heart would flutter and palpitate so and I would take such weak spells in the pit of my stomach that I sometimes thought I would never get better. I had almost given up hope when a friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I did not stop until I had taken twenty-five boxes. It has done wonders for me and I want to recommend it to everyone."

THE CUMBERLAND DISASTER.

If any consolation can be extracted from the awful calamity which snuffed out the lives of thirty-three men in No. 4 mine of the Canadian Collieries at Cumberland last February, it can be taken from the fact that the cause of the tragedy was neither faulty equipment nor traceable to any of the various unexpected moods of Nature. The official investigator finds that one of the victims of the disaster himself apparently could not withstand the temptation to smoke. He presumably produced cigarette and match and proceeded to blow himself and thirty-two of his workmates to eternity.

In view of the discovery that has now been made it ought not to be difficult for the Minister of Mines to take such steps as will deter careless and criminally thoughtless employees from taking matches and smoking materials into the workings. It is an extraordinary thing that even the Oriental worker should not be warned of such obvious dangers by the natural instinct to play safe. But, since there is here a glaring and tragic example of ignorance of first principles, there should be suitable punishment for the initial crime of setting the stage for possible disaster.

The mines of Vancouver Island are adequately equipped with all the latest devices prescribed by long years of mining experience. Nothing has been forgotten where the safety of the worker is involved. But all these considerations may just as well be ignored if the individual worker will not recognize his own responsibility. Thirty-three lives might have been saved if the desire to smoke had been curbed for an hour or so. This is the lesson of the disaster which sent Cumberland into mourning last February.

MAY DAY CELEBRATIONS.

London's celebration of May Day produced nothing very new. The procession was over a mile long. Large detachments of police accompanied it and everything went off peacefully and quietly. The startling banners that were carried aloft will be carefully put away until next year, as they have been from year to year. Isolated outbursts in Hyde Park and very possibly in the House of Commons will punctuate the interval until the time comes round for the annual exhibition on an organized scale.

Cape Breton mine workers blew themselves to a real "red" celebration with a hammer and sickle-bedecked banner. But the even tenor of the average individual in the Nova Scotia city does not seem to have suffered by the "Russian invasion." In Buenos Ayres things were a little livelier after a thousand or so anarchists had joined in the celebrations. May Day radicals in Montreal lost their red flags and had to get along without them. Disorders were conspicuous by their absence. Other places on both sides of the Atlantic from which reports have been received have nothing sensational to offer. In a general sense, therefore, the annual forebodings about May the First were again groundless.

In the land of Bolshevism worshippers at the Soviet shrine are witnessing the gradual decline of Premier Lenin. As he nears the grave he must feel sorry for himself. He it was in 1917 who promised peace for the tired soldier, land for the peasants, and industrial control for the toilers. How has it worked? The peasants jumped for joy at the prospect of becoming landowners. They did not detect the joker. The shock came when they found they were compelled to dispose of their produce at any price fixed by the state. Factory workers are worse off than ever. Hours are longer, wages are lower, and living standards are reduced.

Lenin counted upon world revolution. He played for high stakes. If his dreams had come true he might have established his own pattern of government more firmly and even successfully in his own country. He failed and failed miserably. He has known it for more than a year. Bolshevism has compromised its principles time and time again during the last eighteen months. The Communistic wage system has long disappeared. Free trade has been restored to the peasants. Lenin is once more a suitor of Capital.

It may now well be asked how long are the workmen of this and other lands going to head their May Day processions with the red emblem of failure? The hammer and the sickle are symbols of honest toil—typical of industrial progress and rural peace and plenty. Use them as the embellishments of a crimson flag and you figuratively smear them with innocent blood.

HANGING A WOMAN.

People throughout the British Empire very naturally shudder at the thought of a woman meeting her end on the scaffold. It offends the finer instincts of the race. At the same time the hanging of Mrs. Florence Lassandra at Fort Saskatchewan this morning constitutes another lesson in British justice.

It may well be that to-day's hanging—the first unfortunate female victim to meet her doom at the hands of the executioner in this country in twenty-four years—will obliterate the old question of capital punishment for women. Long before the execution of Mrs. Edith Thompson in London last January thousands of people appended their names to a petition for reprieve in the case of herself and the young man who was her active accomplice and actually committed the foul deed. But in the opinion of the majority the course which the Home Secretary took was perfectly right. His refusal of clemency obviously strengthened the doctrine of equality upon which British justice rests.

Capital punishment will always remain a subject for many opinions. But the average individual who reads about flowers being sent to a condemned murderer very naturally inquires whether these sympathetic, but often woefully misguided, donors would spare the self-same culprit if his act had been responsible for tragedy invading their own households.

THE PROVINCIAL VOTERS' LIST.

Those who were qualified to vote at the last provincial election and did not do so will require to register their names in the ordinary way before next Saturday if they wish to be eligible to exercise the franchise at the next election. The extra month during which registration might continue was decided upon because of the fact that so many had been dilatory in taking the necessary steps. It is now hoped, however, that the tardy ones have discharged an important obligation in the manner prescribed.

DANCING FOR RECORDS.

Time was when the six-day bicycle race was the most futile form of indoor athletic amusement. But a successor has been discovered. Marathon dancing has arrived with a jump. The laurels of vain achievement may now be won by "devotion" to an art in place of athletic exercise. One may well ask what is going to be the ultimate limit in hours and miles. Twenty-seven hours of continuous whirling over a waxed floor stood as a record a week or so ago. That has been shattered. One man has just danced continuously for 132 hours and feminine votaries are tiring out relays of mere male dancing partners, taking nutrient on the jump, and finishing exhausted minus pounds in weight. Such is the reward for the glory of a "record." What new form of human progress may we expect?

NAILING THE LIE.

Some misguided individual who is supposed to live in this city wrote to Lloyd's Weekly News some time ago with the fixed intention of informing British readers of that well known journal that Victoria resembles a "deserted village" and that "whole streets of shops and houses are unoccupied."

If the gentleman in question wants to be honest with himself and fair to the community which he seems loath to leave he will repair such damage as he may have done—although the average newspaper reader in Britain has a way of finding out things for himself—by selecting facts for his next despatch upon the London press.

In this connection the writer in question might ponder over the building statistics for the month which closed yesterday and compare them with the preceding month. He would discover that the April figures show an increase over February of $123,007 and that the first four months of 1923 reveal an increase over the corresponding period last year of $82,842. So much for the "deserted village" and the air of desolation generally!

There are altogether too many croakers in this and other communities. Some of these get cured without serious eruptions in overseas newspapers. But the incident to which we have referred is a particularly vicious case of misrepresentation.

NOTE AND COMMENT

What is the British Labor Party coming to? Its leaders have gone and accepted an invitation to dine with Lady Astor in order to meet the Prince of Wales. Really, the members of the official Opposition are getting positively reckless in their social commitments. And what will the fiery gentlemen from the Clyde say about this new "conspiracy"?

The Toronto Star heads an editorial on the liquor question as follows: "Give Quebec and British Columbia a Square Deal." We shall hope that the Senators who seem to be so concerned about the welfare of the bootleggers, and the relation of their peculiar and unsavory business to the "liberty of the subject," will take due note of our contemporary's exhortation.

Paraders of this country who cheered the red flag yesterday, and those who were particularly jubilant, may rest assured that if the land of the "hammer and sickle" indulged in any such celebrations they were pretty miserable affairs. Marching on bare feet and with empty stomachs would hardly harmonize with the strains of "The Red Flag."

"Jim" Larkin has apparently become chastened. Prison life has afforded him an opportunity for serious introspection. He has arrived in Dublin without much encouragement for the followers of de Valera. He told five thousand people who welcomed him that "any Irishman who takes it upon himself to kill another Irishman is unfit for the community." If "Jim" will use similar logic in his future undertakings he will find it will get him farther than his old tactics did.

CLERGYMEN SUED FOR LIBEL BY
NANAIMO PAPERDivergent Views on Sunday
Football and Baseball
Causes Spirited Battle

Vancouver, May 2.—Sunday observance in Nanaimo culminated in a libel suit which necessitated an application to Mr. Justice Murphy in the Supreme Court here.

It is the aftermath of a campaign waged on the one side by The Daily Herald and on the other by the Ministerial Association of Nanaimo. A letter addressed on November 10 last to the editor of The Daily Herald, has resulted in that journal instituting an action for libel against members of the Ministerial Association.

Defendants cited include S. Ryall, W. P. Ewing, A. W. Mayse, G. Bruce Ridland, P. R. Kelly and D. Lister, all ministers of the Gospel residing in Nanaimo.

The plaintiffs are The Herald Printing and Publishing Co., and R. H. Hindmarch, editor of The Daily Herald.

Representing the plaintiffs, E. C. Mayers asked Mr. Justice Murphy to order the defendant ministers to furnish particulars of their defence.

Particulars were sought of the allegation that the letter was true in substance and, in fact, that it was fair comment upon matters of public interest, that it was published under a sense of upholding doctrines of the churches as to observance of Sunday, and that it was published in self-justification of self-defence.

Expressions Quoted

Reginald Symes, for the ministers of the Gospel, contended these particulars were contained in the letter of November 10. Counsel read the letter to Mr. Justice Murphy.

The Ministerial Association of Nanaimo had been attacked by The Daily Herald, stated the letter, because it counselled the churches to protest against that paper's attitude on the question of Sunday observance. The epithets "religious bigotry," "reckless fanaticism," "cruel, unreasoning bigotry," and "blighting pettiness" had been applied by The Herald during the discussion, read the letter. A flagrant defiance of the law was taking place in Nanaimo, according to the ministers, "affecting the highest moral and spiritual interests of the people."

The association charged the paper with championing the cause of law breakers and holding the law up to ridicule.

The letter quoted The Daily Herald as stating "Sunday observance to us means the right of every man and woman to observe it as he or she sees fit."

The letter added that that was the moral standard of The Daily Herald, it is not a high one; and Nanaimo as a city can not reach any higher. God pity Nanaimo.

A withdrawal of church announcements from The Daily Herald was recommended by the association in its letter, so as to bring home to the general public a sense to which it was outraging the religious feelings of the community.

The association stood for the sacredness of the law of God backed up by the law of man, stated the ministers. This latter reference has been accepted by the plaintiffs as dealing with the action of the Police Commissioners in their attempts to prohibit the playing of football on Sunday.

The letter concluded by charging The Daily Herald with opposing the operation of the Lord's Day Act. Judgment was reserved by Mr. Justice Murphy.

Making Big Inroads Into Industry, Cecil Tice Tells Growers

Fifty per cent. of British Columbia's potato growing industry is now in the hands of Orientals, Cecil Tice, potato expert, told the Victoria and District Gardeners' Association at a meeting in the City Hall last night. The inroads of Orientals upon the business, he stated, were particularly serious in the interior.

The average potato acreage of British Columbia, Mr. Tice said, is 16,000 acres, and the six-ton yield per acre is higher than in other provinces. This due to the fact that the soil of this Province is particularly well suited to the production of potatoes, he explained. The Province fortunately is free from most of the destructive pests that attack potatoes, but there are still some serious diseases to fight, he declared.

Use of better seed and co-operation among the growers, would improve the quality of potatoes grown in British Columbia, Mr. Tice said. He explained how potatoes are used now in the manufacture of potato flour and starch.

Mr. Tice looked forward to the day when a great export trade in certified potato seed would develop. The advantages of certified seed, he explained, are that they are free from disease and true to type. All seed should be treated before it is planted, he warned.

AWFUL TRUTH OUT;
ANDY, CITY GOAT,
FOOLED EVERYONEAmazed Officials Find Park
King No Gentleman; Arrange for New Pet

Something awful has happened. Newspapermen who called at the City Hall to-day, knew that the minute they opened the door, leading officials showed it plainly by worried looks and mysterious mutterings. When asked what was the matter they protested that the trouble was too serious and too personal for discussion.

By noon, however, one of the officials had thawed out sufficiently to explain the horrible truth. Here it is: Andy Gump, ex-mountain goat and animal "king" of Beacon Hill, who recently escaped and caused a near riot in the park, isn't Andy. "Andy" proves to be of the weaker sex.

City park officials broke the news gently to the City Hall early this morning. They said they had not dared to speak of it before, but on reading in the papers about Andy's recent break from her pen and the interest City Council members were taking in her exploits they thought they ought to make the real facts known.

Consequently, Andy's name will have to be changed. He was christened Andy by City Clerk E. W. Bradley, who said that the shaggy monster had a strange resemblance to Andy Gump, of the comic papers. From now on she will be known as Mrs. Gump as far as Mr. Bradley is concerned, but a counter-move to christen her Pola Negri or something stylish like that has developed among the younger fry at the City Hall.

Meanwhile it was definitely announced that Mrs. Gump's days of solitary splendor at the park will soon be over. Arrangements have been made to import a husband for her. A big white goat with a long beard is to be caught by the Canadian parks authorities in the Rockies and shipped down here. It will take some time to tame the newcomer, it is expected, and it is likely that he will try at first to wreck the park but he will get used to Victoria in the charming company of Mrs. Gump. Of this the City Hall is confident.

EDUCATION NEEDS SPIRITUAL NOT MATERIAL BASIS

Miss Helen Stewart Reviews Principles Enunciated by National Council

"The new education is not a revolutionary process. It makes for stabilization. It is a welding of what was best in the old and what is best in the new systems. It makes for character development rather than the mere accumulation of facts. It is a spiritual and not a material process. This was the keynote of a clever and comprehensive survey of the recent conference of the National Council of Education, brought to the Women's Canadian Club yesterday afternoon by Miss Helen Stewart, who represented the local club at the deliberations in Toronto recently.

Of and For the People.
In retrospect, Miss Stewart made no attempt to cure the speech given at the conference. Rather she brought to her hearers impressions of the ideals and principles promulgated at this gathering, which she observed was not so much a conference of leading educationalists as a gathering of the interested public. Representatives of six hundred organizations, few of which were recognized educational institutions attended, proving that this educational movement was of the people, by the people, and for the people.

It was being universally recognized that the applying of "plasters" to educational problems did not remove the source of the trouble. To-day there was a general movement to find a remedy and remove the source of these difficulties. It had been recognized that there was something wrong with the concepts of past years which had first demanded that the pupils be saddled with disciplinary traditions, and later, that education meant the cramming of the young with a vast accumulation of facts to be disgorged at examination.

The Silver Dollar Ideal.
Miss Stewart observed that the economic and social revolution of the past half century had its reflection in the general tendency to attribute too much importance to the silver dollar. With the ever-increasing scarcity of money had come the present day period of cost accounting, and those who put education into the balance were asking, "Does it pay?" Economists had said that from the purely economic standpoint, education did not pay. Those who were devoted to real education, continued the speaker, were asking themselves, "Do we want education to justify itself on a purely commercial basis? Is it dollars and cents we are just hunting for?"

These thinking educationists had found the answer. "They are realizing that we are losing sight of those spiritual values without which the nation must perish. We must get a re-valuation of the educational processes," said Mrs. Stewart. Chairman Vincent Massey in opening the national conference emphasized five points: First, the education must fit students for life; second, that it was a spiritual, not a material process; third, that it was everybody's business; fourth, that although education was a provincial responsibility there must be a national unity of ideals; and last, that the teaching profession must be recognized for what it was worth in the community.

Applicable to Adults.
Education was now in a transitional state, according to Miss Stewart, and the public should be attuned to all the changes now taking place in educational theories throughout the world. Certain phases of education were applicable to adults. It was necessary that grown-ups should take a little of the educational dose themselves in order to avoid the great tragedy of separation of old and young interests. Character development was the fundamental basis of true education. The gentle art of self-control should be taught, for the only way to train good citizens and form a true democracy is to train them to control themselves. The value of good manners should also be emphasized, claimed the speaker.

Broader Ideals.
One of the points brought out at the conference was the importance of literature as a factor in education. The best way to gain a proper understanding of another country was through its literature, for literature was vicarious experience. Such subjects as literature, history and geography should be placed on a broader, humanizing basis. Another vital necessity in an educational system which would develop personality, originality and individuality was the teaching to children of beauty of line and color and so awakening in them a consciousness of beauty. In conclusion Miss Stewart said that the cause of the new education would be helped if everyone would remember that education is everybody's business; that it is not a revolutionary, but a stabilizing process. Miss Cann in a few well-chosen words voiced the appreciation of the meeting for Miss Stewart's able survey of the conference. Mrs. H. E. Young echoing the sentiment, Miss Vivian McGrey, a pupil of Mrs. Na-smith, delighted the gathering with vocal numbers.

YOUR HOME AND YOU

By HELEN KENDALL

Loving Your Tools

In the charming little one-act play "Three Pills in a Bottle," a quaint old scissors-grinder says, whimsically:

"Oh, but people don't love their tools! They don't keep them sharpened and polished, and when they get dull, they just throw them out!"

Keen, sharp tools were his religion. And to most men workers with tools, the first law is that knives shall be ground to a nicety, that no dullness or rust shall be permitted, and that each tool shall be given the longest life possible. I know a man whose home carpenter bench and tool-chest are a lesson to us women. Every tool has its own notch in which to hang, and each tool is used for one purpose only, and is kept sacred to that use.

We housewives ought to give the greatest of care to the perfect condition of our tools. Our bread and carving knives should be kept so sharp that they could split a hair (though they must never be allowed to do so). Our can-openers should be of the newest, most convenient make and kept so sharp that there will be no more of that labored sawing around the rim of the can. We should have aluminium spoons of various sizes, kept shining with polish. Our paring knives should be marvels of keen sharpness.

W.W.C.A. GUEST TEA WAS BIG SUCCESS

A most delightful tea and musical programme were given in the W. W. C. A. rooms yesterday afternoon. It was arranged by a live social committee convened by Mrs. Mitchell and took the form of a "Guests' Tea." Each table having a hostess who invited her own guests and provided her own table decorations, equipment and food, while the guests in turn left a silver offering for the building fund. The tables were most beautifully decorated and the dining-room presented a most attractive appearance. The following were hostesses: Mrs. James Forman, Mrs. Drummond-Hay, Mrs. Collis, Miss H. McNaughton, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Fleury, Miss Hummer, Mrs. Nivins, Mrs. Colman, Mrs. Edwin Brown, Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. McNaughton.

Sir Frank and Lady Barnard returned to-day to Victoria from Vancouver, where they attended the wedding of their niece, Miss Eva Loewen. Lady Barnard was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. W. W. Loughly Brown at the Jericho Country Club yesterday. Other guests were Lady Piers, Lady Bury, Mrs. G. Henshaw, Mrs. Wroughton, Mrs. Taylor Wood, Mrs. J. W. Stewart, Mrs. H. E. C. Carry and Mrs. Leslie Coote.

At St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay, on May the first, a quiet wedding took place, when Kathleen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Budd, of Langley Port, (formerly of Seattle), was married to Raymond Hawthorne, of New Westminster. The bride, who wore her travelling suit of navy tricot with hat on suite was unattended. The young couple left on the afternoon boat for the Mainland, and will take up their residence in New Westminster.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shearman, of 132 South Turner Street, were agreeably surprised on Saturday evening when a few of their intimate friends gave them a surprise visit, the object being to wish their host "bon voyage" on his journey to Los Angeles. The guests prepared a very original supper table which caused much amusement to host and hostess. A very pleasant evening was brought to a close at midnight by singing "Auld Lang Syne" and wishing Mr. Shearman all success in his new venture. Among those present were Miss Leeger, Mr. and Mrs. McCallum, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas, Mr. Shearman, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. Witty.

A very delightful party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Christie, 615 Elliot Street, on Saturday, in honor of their little son, Cyril's birthday. There were twenty little guests who, for the first part of the evening, indulged in rollicking games. A delicious supper was served, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Clifford Stone, Mrs. Martin and Miss Ivy Fuller assisting at the tables. The latter part of the evening was devoted to a very enjoyable entertainment. Among those who took part were the following: Arthur Johnson, violin solo; Miss Vera Cookson, Spring dance; Miss E. Friend and Cherry Stone, duet; Miss "Dorothea" Sheldon-Williams, recitation; Miss Margaret Cookson, song; Robert Ward, a demonstration of the bagpipes; Maxey and Cyril Fuller, piano-forte duet; Frank Johnson, recitation; Miss Kathleen Lucknow, song; Victor Johnson, piano-forte solo; Ivor Fuller, recitation; Miss Ellen and Jack Clark, Highland Fling; Miss Jenny Ward, song; Wynne Sheldon-Williams, song; Walter Ward, song; Mrs. Clifford Stone accompanied in her usual pleasing manner.

And so with the larger tools, also. In your carpenter's quick pick up every scrap on the run, or does it slide exasperatingly over the surface, hitching and halting as it goes? Does your sewing machine hum easily and smoothly, or does it break needles, snap threads, and entangle the bobbin? We aren't good workwomen unless we keep our tools in order, and unless we love them enough to keep them well-oiled and keen-cutting. They will serve us well if we will give them the scrupulous care they need, and they can make our domestic lives a perfect torment unless they are so cared for. To get the tools into perfect working order may mean an expert sewing-machine man, lawn-mower repairer, or scissors-grinder, but to keep them in good working order means a careful, tool-loving housewife.

Mrs. Jenkins, honorary president, and Mrs. Hyndman, president of the Women's Canadian Club, together with members of the executive, and Mrs. Duncan Campbell, president of the Ladies' Musical Club, and members of the executive attended the affair. The following delightful programme, arranged by Mrs. S. MacIure of the Musical Club, was given: Piano, "Valse Chromatique" (Godard), Miss Marie North, violin, (a) "Berceuse" (Ramon), (b) "Moto Perpetuo" (Bohm), (c) Miss Pauline Hall, piano, "Dreamer's Tale" (Petrkin), Miss Dorothy Cuff, songs, (a) "Spring Is In My Garden," (b) "The Blind Ploughman," Mrs. Edna Davis, piano, "Lorelei," Mrs. Edmund Senkler, songs, (a) "Mystique" (Oley Speaks), (b) "At Dawning" (Cadmian), Mrs. Styles Selh, piano, "Hungarian Rhapsodie, No. 12" (Liszt), Mrs. Edmund Senkler, song, "The Open Secret," Miss Norah Jones, violin, "Cavatina" (Bohm), Miss Pauline Hall, The accompanists were Miss Margaret Campbell and Miss Dorothy Cuff. Miss Ella Pottinger delighted the audience with recitations.

STRIKING COSTUMES AT MASQUERADE

Esquimalt Friendly Help Society Benefits by Successful Function

A large gathering of distinguished visitors responded to the appeal of the Esquimalt branch of the Friendly Help Society, and made the masquerade dance, held under its auspices last night at the Rex Theatre, an unequalled success, which will result in the addition of a good round sum to its resources.

The first prize was finally awarded to Mrs. Barclay in the charming attire of a court lady of the fourteenth century; second, Miss Donogh, "Maid of the Mountains"; first gentleman, Mrs. Kemp, "Big Chief"; second, Mr. Booth, "Camouflage"; first comic, Miss Hagenfranz, "Mary Jane"; second, Chief P. O. Parson, "Pilgrim of the Night." Among many other costumes may be mentioned a splendid Rajah, an exotic dress with fantastic head dress copied from one worn by Gaby de Lys, a jolly little court jester, a gallant Robin Hood, a knight, a cowboy, a gypsy, and a Mexican cowboy, gypsies, and pierrots and pierrottes in every variety of costume from the simple calico to the up-to-date elaborate Jazz.

Mrs. J. Francis, the convener, was congratulated on all sides on the success of the evening. She had the assistance of Mrs. N. Shaw and Mrs. T. Scott at the receipt of customs, and Mrs. J. Nicol who took charge of the refreshments, which were really delicious. Mrs. J. Nicol was as usual a genial master of ceremonies. Mr. J. Francis displayed untiring energy in helping to make things "go" generally. Heaton's orchestra supplied the music. Among those present were: Mrs. Bullen, Mrs. J. M. Ross, Commander and Mrs. Beard, Miss Pooley, R. H. Pooley, M.P.P., Mr. and Mrs. Wolfenden, Major and Mrs. Sisman, Mr. and Mrs. Scott-Ritchie, Mrs. J. Shaw, Mrs. Wendall Shaw, Mrs. M. Tavish, the Reeve and Mrs. Lockley. Members of the Council and of the School Board were represented.

C. P. R. SOCIAL AND ATHLETIC CLUB

A military 500 game will take place on Thursday evening under the auspices of the C. P. R. Club, in the private dining room of the Empress Hotel. This will be the last game of the season, and a large turnout of players is expected. The committee takes this opportunity of thanking all those who have patronized the C. P. R. card games throughout the Winter months. The usual scrip prizes will be awarded the winners. The game starts at 8.30 prompt, and all players are requested to be seated by that time.

SCIENTIFIC progress has become so rapid that it is almost impossible for the average person to keep up with the wonderful discoveries that are leading to complete mastery of disease. We have come to feel that there is really no limit to what the tireless workers in the field of medical research can achieve.

The cause of the extreme weakness of body and mind and the nervous exhaustion that is so often seen in men and women, and for which they have not been able to account, has been found. And, what is much more important to the thousands thus afflicted, a way has been discovered to relieve these symptoms and promptly restore vigor to the body.

It has been found that the loss of weight, strength and energy that brings distress and depression of mind to countless men and women, is often due solely to the fact that the inorganic elements present in the food they eat are not properly utilized by the millions of little cells of which our tissues are composed. When these cells fail to receive the proper amount of these inorganic elements—when they are faced by a famine—they lessen their functional activity in order to escape death through starvation. In other words, these cells curtail their production of vital energy and, as a consequence, the entire body is weakened, just as it is after a day of extremely hard labor if we do not take time for a mid-day lunch and rest.

In Wincarnis—the reconstructive tonic—are combined the inorganic elements present in the food we eat, and which the cells of the body require in order to produce strength and energy and rebuild tissue. When taken three or four times a day, Wincarnis furnishes the cells with an abundance of the necessary inorganic elements, and the body promptly regains its lost vigor, weight is restored, and there is a full recovery of energy. For almost half a century, physicians have prescribed Wincarnis for the weak, anemic, nervous and run-down.

GALSWORTHY'S BOOK THEME OF LECTURE

"Forsyte Saga" Is Chosen as Topic for Address by Dr.
Sedgewick

Dr. G. G. Sedgewick, Professor of English at the University of British Columbia, last night addressed an enthusiastic audience at the Metropolitan Methodist Church, taking for his subject that widely read and popular work of art, Galsworthy's "Forsytie Saga." That Dr. Sedgewick reached the hearts of his hearers was obvious. It is seldom that an un-demonstrative British gathering gives vent to its feelings as did his audience last night.

Dr. Sedgewick made a rapid sketch of the story of the book he had chosen as the feature of his address, pointing out its most striking characteristics. John Galsworthy, he said, dealt with types, in his novels, rather than characters. Furthermore, the book was a clear panorama of events, thoughts and actions put down in a form worthy of the true artist, and easily understood.

Primarily, "Forsyte Saga" is a study of the upper-middle class of the Victorian age. Its characters are types. Barely does the author put his own words before his readers, for like many of the modern novelists, he prefers to speak through the mouths of his characters. In this he is emulated by such men as Harvey and Meredith.

Dr. Sedgewick pointed out the fact that Galsworthy was attempting to deal with the changing aspects of the world. "The world of change which is of the outward sense, as opposed to the fundamental. In his book the changes of the workings of the internal man form the theme," he observed.

For seventeen years John Galsworthy has been putting together his material for the completed "Forsyte Saga." In this length of time he has followed his primary line of thought without a transgression. It is marvelous, Dr. Sedgewick thinks, that a man or woman could, in this long period of time, write separate stories which follow along the grooves set out by the first tale, with so little deviation. The whole work reads like a single narrative.

"A man does not consist of the abundance of what he has." If a man be measured in this way and his worth taken from such findings, that man is as one who has "built his house upon sand." This type of materialistic individual was common in the Victorian age. He is not permanent, the speaker observed.

As soon as a man gets spiritual thoughts into his mind all materialistic tendencies vanish. In the place of the sense of property, comes the sense of beauty—art, literature and religion. The one is within, the other without, the body. But one cannot serve the inside and the outside together. This, again, is the theme of the book, said Dr. Sedgewick.

"Be not like the man who said:
'Every time a new book comes out I sit down and read an old one,'" said Dr. Sedgewick. "Rather learn to judge what is good and what is bad.
Keep your faculty of judging active.
Read the new books when you get a chance."

T. W. Cornett occupied the chair
during the lecture.

CITY LOSES WELL KNOWN MERCHANT

J. T. McDonald Passes Away; Prominent in Church and Lodge Work

John Thomas McDonald, well-known Victoria business man and resident of the city for more than thirty years, died at the Jubilee Hospital last night after a serious operation performed last Wednesday.
Members of his family were with him when the end came peacefully at half-past eight. He was exactly sixty-eight years old, having been born in Manila, Ontario, May 1, 1855.

Mr. McDonald came west at an early age after being educated in Ontario. He was employed by the Hudson's Bay Company at Winnipeg for seven years and then settled here in 1882. Foreseeing probable development in this district, he purchased a large strip of property at Oak Bay Junction, where he established a successful grocery business. He remained in this business for seventeen years but was forced to retire on account of ill health, selling his interests to Fenerty Bros.

In 1912 he built the McDonald
Block at the corner of Oak Bay Avenue and Port Street. Recently he has resided at 1439 Elm Street.
Mr. McDonald was prominent in church affairs, being a devout member of the First Presbyterian Church.
For many years he was a member of the board of managers of the church and served two years as chairman of the board. When the church building was erected at the corner of Balmoral Road and Quadra Street he was a member of the building committee which supervised the work.

Mr. McDonald also was promi-nently identified with lodge work. He was a member of the Order of Foresters, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Ancient Order of United Workmen.

He is survived by his widow and three sons, Ormond, Alexander and Aubrey. Burial will be held at the old Blair, of The Colonist editorial staff.

The remains are at the B.C. Funeral Parlors. Arrangements will be made shortly.

ASTRONOMERS HAVE AN ACTIVE EVENING

Leading Men From Local Observatories Discourse on Interesting Topics

At the meeting of the Victoria branch of the Royal Astronomical Society last night at the Central School, several speakers were heard, among them Dr. Plaskett, Dr. Denison and Dr. Young. Mr. Denison opened the programme with a talk concerning the new seismograph which was installed last October at the Gonzales Observatory. This instrument is considered to be the most sensitive of its kind in the world. With it it is possible to undertake more involved research work than has previously been
the case.

Dr. Young, of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, gave a report of the evidence supporting the Einstein theory. The summary of Dr.
Young's evidence was that there was a residual amount over and above all evidence against the Einstein theory to confirm it. With it it is possible to undertake more involved research work than has previously been
the case.

Dr. Plaskett, Director of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, gave a short talk on "O" type stars, of which there are only one hundred known to human ken. These "O" type stars are most massive, and are of terrific temperature, often amounting to 30,000 degrees Fahrenheit. There are about forty visible in this latitude. The speaker used slides, which made his lecture even more interesting.

TO GIVE TWO LECTURES TO VICTORIA PUBLIC

Dr. J. C. Lawson, by special invitation, will give two lectures in Victoria before starting on his Eastern tour. These lectures will be held in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium Thursday, May 3, at 8 p. m., and Friday, May 4, at 8 p. m.
Dr. Lawson's reputation is national and has the endorsement of such eminent authorities as Dr. Tilden, of Denver, and Dr. Elmer Lee, of New York. His recent book entitled "The Secrets of Life" has won the highest praise.
He makes the assertion that if given a free hand he would empty the insane asylums, the jails and reform schools of their inmates. He asserts that disease, insanity and delinquency are the results of Nature's broken laws and can be overcome.

Well-Dressed Women Will Wear McMULLEN Dresses

—prices asked are so very reasonable!

PARIS creates clothes ideas, and upon these McMULLEN relies for the exquisite smartness of all frocks and sports dresses bearing his label—a Silver Swan on Turquoise-Blue background.

But this smartness depends upon the lovely texture, the beauty and lasting quality of the silk fabrics just as much as upon the styling of the many pretty models.

The silk and fabrics, all the materials and fine workmanship that McMULLEN puts into a frock or dress for sports or afternoon wear are rarely found in any but the most expensive garments—each a thing of beauty exquisitely made.

And yet all this refreshing newness of design, these winsome materials and colour blendings of rare beauty are combined into

The tufted bristles and the curved handle of the Prophy-lactic Tooth Brush make it possible to clean even the backs of the teeth and in between them.

"A Clean Tooth Never Decays"

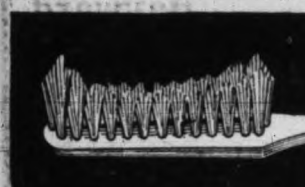

THE curved handle makes the back teeth about as easy to clean as the front ones. Prophy-lactic Tooth Brushes come in three sizes—adults', youths', and children's; and in three degrees of stiffness—hard, medium, and soft. Always sold in the yellow box.

Besides twice-a-day brushing of the teeth, it is wise and economical to visit your dentist four times a year for examination and attention, which is sure to be slight.

Sold by all dealers in Canada.

Disease Germs Doomed

Many have lost terrors for the Scientist
The progress of recent years in medical research is little short of marvellous. Daily, science kills germs by the million. Daily, new ones are being discovered, isolated and exterminated by the march of medicine.
Science is winning. What were once regarded as serious diseases are now laughed off of countenance by the doctors. Fearlessly they plunge naked hands into swarms of them, their only precaution being to rinse their hands afterwards with a reliable germicidal preparation. We are witnessing the birth of an era when the world will have little to fear from microbes.
Absorbine Jr., besides being the all-purpose liniment that removes pain and soreness, and hastens healing, is a powerful antiseptic that is death to the microbe world.
Absorbine Jr. is just what is needed in the home in case of accidents and to correct the many little household ills that constantly occur. $1.25, at your druggist.

RESTORER GETS READY FOR WORK

The Commercial Cable Company's cableship Restorer arrived at the Yarrow's Wharf at 9 o'clock this morning from her anchorage in Esquimalt Harbor to undergo minor repairs found necessary since her return from Midway Island. After completing repairs the Restorer will shift to the Outer Docks to take aboard cable which will be delivered here by the SS. Dominion Miller.

EURYDAMAS WILL ARRIVE THURSDAY

Blue Funnel Ship Has 750 Tons of Freight for Discharge Here

In the service of the Blue Funnel Line the steamship Eurydamas is due to reach this port Thursday night to discharge freight from the United Kingdom.

According to telegraphic advice received by Henry Davidson, local agent for the Blue Funnel Line, the Eurydamas sailed from San Francisco at 6 p. m. on Monday. She has 750 tons of general freight to put off here and will be in port for two days.
The local cargo includes liquor, steel plates and tin plate.
From here the Eurydamas will shift to Vancouver to complete the discharge of her inward cargo.
She will carry outward from Vancouver about 3,000 tons of freight made up chiefly of salmon, flour and lumber.
Following the Eurydamas in the Panama service of the company will be the steamship Astyanax, which sailed from Liverpool, April 29. The Astyanax will take about forty days to make the passage out via the Panama Canal and may be expected to arrive here about June 10.

COAST FLYER GOES ON DOCK

SS. Princess Victoria Hauled Out To-day by Yarrow's, Limited
Has Been Laid Up Here Since Beginning of the Year

Out of commission for the past four months, the famous coast-wise steamship Princess Victoria jumped into the limelight to-day when she left the Inner Harbor to get her annual refit at Esquimalt. The Canadian Pacific flyer arrived at the Yarrow's plant at 10.30 a. m. to-day and is being drydocked this afternoon for underwater cleaning and painting operations.
Since the beginning of the year the vessel has been laid up at the Belleville Street wharves and during the past week or two workmen from the C. P. R. shops have been engaged in the renovation and refurbishing of the interior. The interior decorative work is not yet completed, but by the time the boat is put back into commission she will be as spick and span as usual.

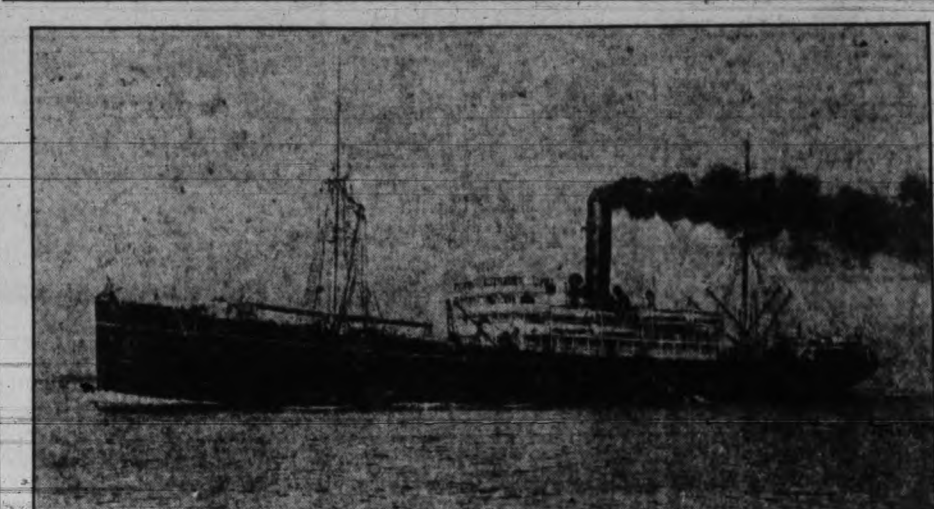

To Resume This Month.
No date has yet been set for the resumption of the Princess Victoria in the triangular service, but it is understood that she will be back on her regular route by May 24 when the holiday traffic will be unusually heavy.

OCEAN AND COASTWISE SHIPPING

N.Y.K. Liner in Port To-day From Orient

S. S. YOKOHAMA MARU
The Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Yokohama Maru reached quarantine late this afternoon and will berth this evening at Pier 1, commencing her voyage from the Orient. The Yokohama Maru carries 28 steerage passengers for Victoria and has 13 first class and 29 steerage passengers for Seattle. The cargo brought in by the Yokohama Maru includes a consignment of over 2,000 bales of raw silk, the largest shipment of silk that a Japanese liner has transported across the Pacific for some time.
The N. Y. K. steamship Shidzuoka Maru got away last night with passengers and a capacity cargo of freight for the Orient.

BRITISH CRITICISM OF LIQUOR RULING

High-handed Piece of Arrogance Toward Foreigners, Says London Star

London, May 2.—"A high-handed piece of arrogance toward foreigners" is the way The Star to-day characterized the decision of the United States Supreme Court, against the transportation of liquor within the three-mile limit by American or foreign vessels. The Star, which is the only London newspaper thus far to make an editorial expression on the matter, says:
"The United States is of all civilized states the most opposed to the Russian Government, yet the two countries are now as one.
"The decision of the Soviet Government to seize and imprison the crew of a British trawler caught fishing within a limit of twelve miles is simply a piece of high-handed arrogance in the face of the plain doctrine of modern international law that the limit of territorial waters is three miles.
"The decision of the United States Supreme Court that neither American or foreign ships may carry intoxicating liquors into American territorial or American ports, is an equally high-handed piece of arrogance toward foreigners.
"This is now no question between the relative merits of the wets and dries, it is an attempt to apply an American municipal law to foreign ships—which are by international law, parts of their national territory—while they are in American waters and ports.
Not Conference Matter.
New York, May 2.—Sydney Morse, chief of the American division of the North Atlantic Passenger Conference, says that the problem raised by the Supreme Court's decision banning liquor from all ships inside the three-mile limit was one to be solved and met by individual steamship lines, not by the Conference.

B.C. LUMBER TO SEATTLE MILLS

Carriers Operating Between Buckley Bay, Queen Charlotte and Lake Union

Seattle, May 2.—Marking the debut of the northeast section of Lake Union as an active factor in Seattle shipping, arrangements have been completed, it was learned to-day, by which the steamships of the Los Angeles Lumber Produce Steamship Line will supply the plant of the Puget Sound Lumber & Box Company with spruce and hemlock from Buckley Bay, Massett Inlet, British Columbia. The Los Angeles company are allied corporations, being owned by the same interests.
The Puget Sound Company's plant is at 12th Avenue Northeast and Northlake Avenue, fronting on the arm of Lake Union that lies almost in front of the campus of the University of Washington. Heretofore that arm of the lake never had participated in Seattle waterborne commerce.
Two of the Los Angeles company's steamships, El Ceuta and El Abeto, already have delivered cargoes of spruce and hemlock to the Puget Sound company's plant. A third steamship, El Cedro, also will bring lumber for the plant when required.

The vessels ordinarily operate between Buckley Bay and San Pedro, but are being diverted to Seattle when the Lake Union plant requires spruce and hemlock.
The arrival and departure of the lumber carriers in that part of Lake Union has attracted wide attention in shipping circles. It marks another step forward, it is pointed out, in the development of Seattle's great fresh water harbor.

MCKINLEY TO SAIL

Launch Action for Breach of Contract

Skinner and Eddy Corporation File Suit for $9,129,401 Against the U. S. Shipping Board in Connection With Cancellation of Shipbuilding Contracts

Seattle, May 2.—The Skinner and Eddy Corporation, which during the world war developed a large shipbuilding plant here, yesterday filed suit in superior court for $9,129,401.14 against the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation, alleging breach of contract.
The complaint alleged that in February, 1919, the Government cancelled contracts with Skinner and Eddy for the building of seventy vessels, at a time when 25 vessels were in course of construction. Losses alleged to have resulted from this action include $1,605,060.22, said to have been expended in improving part of the plant known as Skinner and Eddy Site No. 2, $514,441.40, plant rental or lease, payments to the Government, and $166,722.42 insurance and taxes.
Other items of losses claimed were shipbuilding materials on hand at the time of cancellation, bonuses paid to workmen and advances to sub-contractors. All material on hand and ordered was declared to have become almost totally worthless at the time of cancellation.
Expenditures for improvement of the plant were made, according to the complaint, on the theory that the property would revert to the company. It was alleged that cancellation of the contract prevented Skinner and Eddy from completing operations to acquire ownership of the plant.
Only Reply.
D. E. Skinner, president of the Skinner and Eddy Corporation, said last night that the suit was the only reply he had ever made to "many rumors that have been coming back to me all these years."
"The Skinner and Eddy Corporation did not make millions out of cost-plus contracts during the war," he asserted. "We never took a single cost-plus contract with the Government. We never took a contract by which we stood only to make a profit and suffered no risk of loss."

FIRST STEAMSHIPS MAKING MONTREAL

Montreal, May 2.—After being delayed by ice fields in the gulf for nearly a week, two ocean steamers, the Cairnvalona and the Bollingbrook are to-day neck and neck for the honor of being the first trans-Atlantic ship to enter Montreal Harbor for 1923. Both are expected to dock here Thursday within a few hours of one another.

OFFICERS CHANGED ON SS. VENEZUELA

San Francisco, May 2.—A number of the officers of the Pacific Mail liner Venezuela have been shifted either to other vessels or shore side, it was announced yesterday. Captain E. N. Storey, formerly first officer of the President Cleveland, succeeds Captain J. W. Allen; C. M. Landers, formerly purser of the China Mail line, succeeds Harvey Kelly in this position, and L. F. Crawford, of the President Lincoln, goes on the Venezuela as first officer.

The steamer Lake Gebhart has been sold by the Shipping Board to the Alaska Steamship Company and will be operated in the trade between Seattle and Alaska. The vessel is now at the plant of the General Engineering and Drydocking Company undergoing overhauling. The steamer was built in Chicago in 1919 and has been at the Bonavia vacation grounds for the past two years.

UP-ISLAND IMPROVEMENT

District Superintendent Home From Tour

A great demand for telephone service up-island, especially for the services of the B.C. Telephone Company, is reported from points, according to F. C. Tupper, district superintendent of the telephone service, who was just back from an island tour and a discussion in Courtenay which caused considerable criticism of Courtenay-Comeby Board of Commissioners, a consequence of which he said that the service in the valley would be improved. That district is the greatest, owing to the growth, improving settlements and

BICYCLE WEEK IS NOW BEING OBSERVED THROUGHOUT CANADA

ENTHUSIASTIC CYCLISTS

In the days when cycling was even more popular than to-day, enthusiasm played a large part in piling up miles. Thousands of cyclists spent all their spare time a-wheel.

Their greatest joy in life was to hit the open road with their bike and keep going. Some made a business of riding, but the majority rode for pleasure. As far back as 1877 big yearly mileages were made on the old high wheels. In that year an English rider rode over 10,000 miles and many others did almost as well. Ten years later Charley Murphy, of Brooklyn, N.Y., rode more than 15,000 miles in a year on the same type of machine, although the high wheel had been greatly improved by that time.

SELL BICYCLE SERVICE

The other day a bicycle dealer told a man that a bicycle would save sufficient street car fare every year to pay the grocery bill for a couple of months. That dealer sold a bicycle!

BICYCLES IN UNIVERSAL USE IN HOLLAND

In Holland the bicycle is a universal means of transportation for business or pleasure purposes. It is one place at least where the simple two-wheeler reigns supreme and far outnumbers motor vehicles. Most of the roads are brick paved and sometimes make rough going for the cyclist, but there is a net work of bicycle paths all over the country constructed especially for the convenience of the cycling public. A writer in "Cycling" gives some idea of the popularity of the bicycle in the following:

"I should imagine that in no other country in the world does so large a proportion of the population use the bicycle as in Holland. Riders of all ages and classes throng the roads round the larger towns and cities, whilst in the country districts the cyclist, often in clogs, is more frequently encountered than the pedestrian."

I was told that, with a population of 7,000,000 inhabitants, there are 1,250,000 bicycles in the country, and I never saw a cyclist but who seemed to be absolutely at home on his machine.

"The majority of the bicycles used in Holland appear to be of foreign manufacture, mostly English makes of the better class, which fact is probably accounted for by the roughness of the roads. There is nearly always a cycle path at the side of the road, and in some cases, there are miles where neither road nor foot-path exists. On these paths the cyclist has prior right of way, and they are forbidden to motor or other vehicular traffic."

Just a hint from a doctor. He doesn't ride a wheel, but he knows: "Anyone who undertakes cycling for exercise and the strengthening of his body must make up his mind to persevere and systematize his work, which must be regular above all things. No one can expect to excel in or enjoy any line of athletics without system; and it is absolutely essential in cycling. If one's riding is spasmodic and irregular, the benefit gained one day is partially lost in the next; the body and mind have to make each new day the original violent effort, and the riding does not produce the beneficial results that it otherwise would if followed persistently and regularly."

Economy, convenience, good health—the bicycle.

When shoes are high, buy low shoes and ride a bicycle.

It's cheaper to ride than to walk. Why not ride?

Don't be a slave to distance—ride a bicycle.

A pleasant stretch on the Cowichan River may be reached by bicycle from all points on the Island Highway.

SLOTTED SHOES AS AN AID TO PROPER ANKLE ACTION

The Importance of Correct Pedaling, and How to Ensure It.
By A. C. DAVISON, A.M.I.C.E.

When a man buys a bicycle he very naturally desires to get one of two things, according to his age and inclinations—either as much speed as possible, or conveyance from place to place with the least necessary exertion. Yet if one watches the string of riders homeward bound on any main road in the evening, not ten per cent. of them are getting the best results from their labors, and a large number are pounding along with legs working more like piston rods than articulated limbs, the majority possessed with an obvious desire to pass the fellow in front and at the same time wasting much power in which, properly applied, would enable them to do so easily.

In no sport does skill play a more important part than in cycling, or offer more examples of the exceptional strong man being beaten by his physically less favored fellow; and as the bicycle has no magic about it, but is simply a converter of a vertically applied force into a horizontal one, the only explanation can be that the weaker man makes a more economical use of his powers.

All shocks and jerks in machinery or man waste power, and the nearer we can get to a steady and uniform driving effort the better the result.

With cranks and pedals and the rider seated above them most of the power must obviously come from the turning effort, but by taking heed to our ways and cultivating ankle action—dropping the heel at the top of the stroke and pushing the pedal forward over the dead centre, and lowering the toe at the bottom and pulling the pedal back past the lower dead centre—a very great improvement in the uniformity of the turning effort can be made. Like most things worth while, this requires some trouble and practice, but is well worth it.

In 1878 Mr. R. P. Scott, an American engineer, took a number of very interesting diagrams with an ingenious pedal of his own invention, which showed the actual force required in riding bicycles at various speeds and of various grades, and he found that when the rider was exerting a maximum downward thrust of 150 pounds he could, by careful ankle action, exert a horizontal thrust, over the dead-centres, of 60 pounds—a very useful addition indeed. Apart from this gain, ankle action reduces the up-and-down movement of the leg, which is comparatively heavy, and transfers this to the lighter and more easily moved foot, with a saving of loss in inertia and friction of joints.

With ordinary shoe and pedals an appreciable addition can be made to one's ease and power, but to get the best results out of ankle action some means of preventing the foot slipping on the pedal are required. The first and obvious remedy is the use of toe clips, but these do not entirely fill the bill, as they only prevent slipping in a forward direction. They have the minor drawbacks of hitting the ground and getting bent, and make catching the pedals when mounting difficult; also, unless a good style has been acquired before adopting them, they are apt to lead to a "poking" action with the toe, the heel never being dropped at all, which is very bad.

The racing man frequently uses straps, and from the power-producing point of view nothing could be better. They not only enable him to pedal over the dead-centres, but to reduce the weight on the rising pedal to zero, or even to pull it up if desired. They are hardy to be recommended to the every-day rider, however, as the difficulty of extracting the feet would be very dangerous in traffic riding.

An Old Device.

There is, however, a third and quite old alternative—dating back to the "ordinary" days, when "missing" a pedal generally meant a nasty spill—which would well bear renewed notice, and this is the use of shoes with slots for the pedal bars. These are not a difficult or very expensive thing to prepare, and from an experience of many thousands of miles are, in the writer's opinion, the ideal for the tourist or club rider. They give a firm grip of the pedals, remove any fear of missing when riding fast, enable a good clawing action to be obtained, and are not dangerous, nor do they interfere with walking.

To get good results, obtain a pair of shoes such as you generally favor, with a thin sole, and ride for a short time with rat-trap pedals—the usual ponderous rubber variety having really no practical advantage at any time—until the soles are marked in your natural position. Then draw a couple of lines about 3/4 in. apart, where the bars come, and get a boot repairer to fit a thin additional sole about 1/4 in. thick, in three pieces, leaving two slots for the pedal bars.

The idea of holding a special bicycle week each year originated in Canada, but the feature has now spread to the United States, England and other countries. England is to have a Bicycle Week this year for the first time, in spite of the fact that the Mother Country has no less than 10,000,000 bicycles, according to official records.

The bicycle provides the cheapest form of transportation known to man.

CYCLING WILL KEEP US YOUNG

Our bodies age in Winter, but not in Summer. This belief is advanced by a doctor who writes for The London Times. According to his theory, a person would never grow old if he lived in the perpetual Summer of the South. However, the theory has a certain amount of truth.

Nothing ages the body quite as rapidly as leading a sedentary life, sitting about, especially indoors, without exercise. That is the rut which the average person has a tendency to fall into. Your body constantly is collecting various toxins, or impurities, of a poisonous nature. Nothing can eliminate these poisons except exercise and fresh air.

A person living in the Northern States gets a fair amount of outdoor life in Summer. But in Winter he makes himself a prisoner of the indoors, rarely venturing out into the cold unless the trip is compulsory. In the South, there is a languor in the air—the outskirts of the tropical aversion to effort.

Balance the year up, and the South is much like the North. After twelve months, no matter where you live in civilization, you look back and know that you "ought to get out more."

The practice of taking a Saturday afternoon off for exercise, is unscientific because it is in the nature of a spurt. It is like neglecting a machine for a week, then giving it a thorough oiling and overhauling. The machine should be oiled daily. So, also, the body. Poisons are collecting in the system daily, and something should be done daily to eliminate them. Physical exercises at home are not sufficient, for they are monotonous, which makes them less beneficial than something that is interesting and involves sport, such as bicycle riding.

The greatest health curse in Canada is that we are becoming "a nation on wheels." We get out the old "bus" even for a half-block trip to the grocery. This already is making inroads on the national health. Unless it is checked, unless Canadians react to bicycle riding and lots of it, we shall become a race of weaklings.

When cycling was so popular that nearly everyone rode a wheel we had a stronger, healthier-looking lot of young men and women than we have to-day. Health and efficiency depend largely on the use of Shank's mare—the legs. A person located geographically so that a ride on a bicycle can be taken every pleasant day is missing some of the real joys of life if he stays indoors and refuses to "Ride a Bicycle."

Ninety-one thousand miles on a bicycle, nearly four times around the globe, is the record of John Rees, aged cyclist of Dover, Ohio. Rees is 54 and his bicycle is 25 years old.

Rees was one of the first citizens of Dover to own a bicycle, purchasing his first wheel 34 years ago.

"I would not trade my bicycle for the best automobile made," he says. Rees rides for the benefit of his health as well as for pastime.

Rees rides his bicycle daily, and averages fifty miles a week Winter and Summer.

In all cities and towns throughout Canada a National Bicycle Week is conducted by cycling enthusiasts each Spring for the purpose of demonstrating the benefits and advantages to be gained through the use of the ever-popular bicycle. The special week has been an annual feature since 1916, and this year's "Spring Cycling Festival" is, therefore, the eighth celebration.

In $100,000 Suit In Court Fight

Richard Enright, Police Commissioner of New York (above), has sued Louis A. Cuvillier, State Assemblyman, for $100,000 damages, claiming that he was slandered in connection with Cuvillier's charges in the Assembly that New York police officials accepted graft from bootleggers.

Charles F. Murphy, Tammany leader, as he left New York Supreme Court, where he brought suit for $175,000 which he claimed to have loaned Louis N. Hartog, glucose dealer. Hartog's attorney claimed that Hartog had been threatened with persecution.

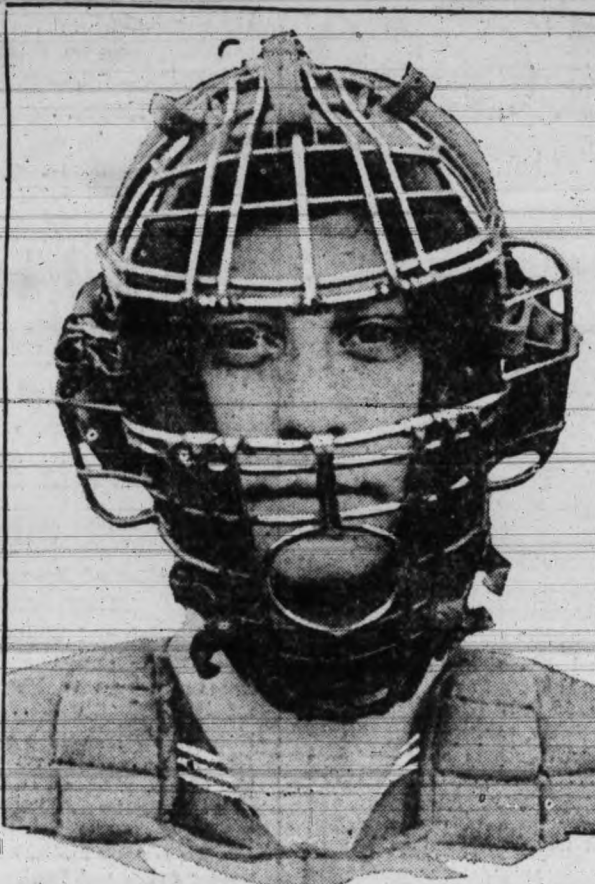

"Autos weren't made for gliding," this machine might have opined after it skidded on a wet roadway, jumped over an embankment and crashed through the roof of a building 30 feet below at Carthage, near Cincinnati, O.

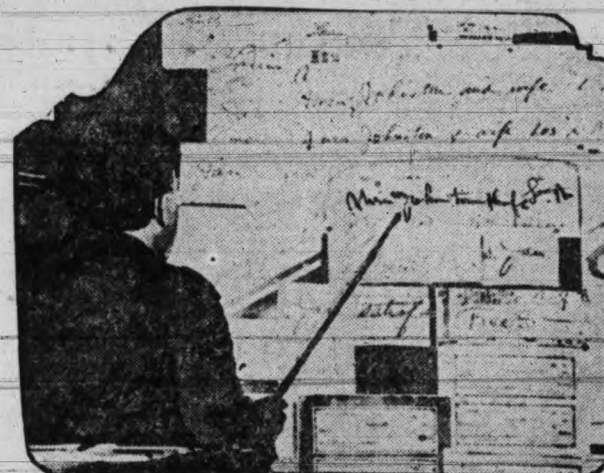

King Fuad of Egypt has backed down on his claims to absolute monarchy, and has signed the constitution submitted by his Cabinet.

Though Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Ga., is known as one of the most exclusive schools in the South and its register reads like a blue book of southern aristocracy, its girl students have taken the lead in organizing a baseball team. Here you see the team, ready to issue a challenge to anyone.

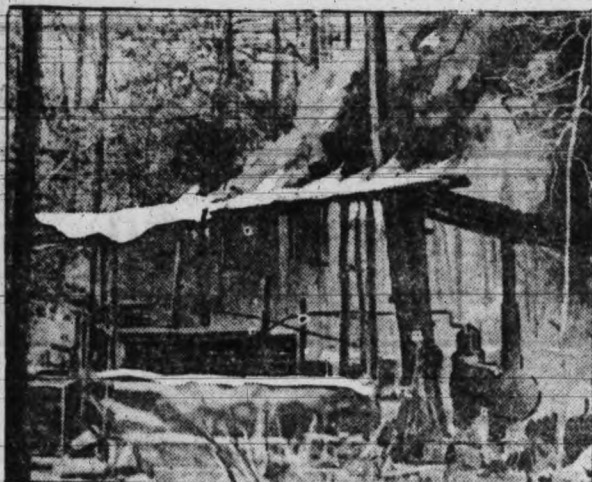

Handwriting May Convict Doctor

These huge photographs, introduced as evidence against Dr. Louis D. Jacobs, accused of the murder of Fritz Mann, dancer, at San Diego, Calif., are banked on by the prosecution to bring conviction. The prosecution hopes to prove Jacobs was the man who registered with Miss Mann at a seaside cottage.

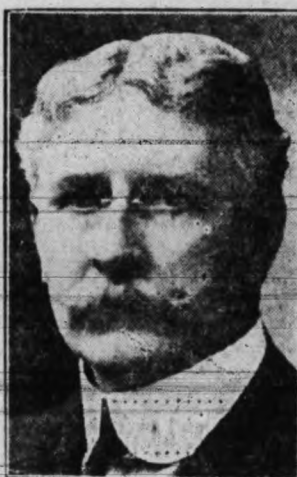

Fighting Firewater With Fire

When revenue officers came across this moonshining outfit in St. Mary's County, Md., near the national capital, they decided the best way to put it out of commission was to set it afire.

J. E. Wallace, Jr., three and one-half years old, traveled 10 miles on this tricycle through Atlanta streets before police found him and took him back to talk it over with dad in the woodshed.

J. D. Chaplin, Conservative M. P. for Lincoln, Ontario, strongly attacked the Franco-Canadian treaty in the House of Commons.

Dennis Kane, of St. John, N. B., calls him Hero and what better name for a dog that saved 52 lives? Hero carried a line to the Ethie, caught in a terrible storm, after men had failed to reach the ship.

If you stood near the sturdy backstop of a certain team at Philadelphia, Pa., you might hear that. Miss Sara Conlin is the catcher and she has the big league manner. Yet withal she has a trace of the eternal feminine. Pads of her mask match her hair.

Heinie Groh, diminutive third sacker of the New York Giants, met the old apple on the nose as this was snapped. It went for a three-bagger. He also added a home run to the day's total at bat in the first game of the season at Boston.

Big Guns at Season's Opening

Mayor Curley of Boston, Judge Landis, High Commissioner of baseball, Christy Mathewson, President and part owner of the Boston Braves, and Judge Fuchs, his partner, at the opening game at Boston when the Giants trimmed the Braves, 4 to 1.

Hon. Nelson Parliament, speaker of the Ontario Legislature, who refused the U. P. O. nomination for Prince Edward County. At the last election he ran as a Liberal.

A queen in her own right is Mrs. Florence V. Murphy, of Chicago, monarch of all she surveys. 'Us with matchless smile and an iron hand she rules her 5,000 subjects. They're all men—members of the gas workers', the bootblacks' and the street sweepers' unions. Down to the very last, each member obeys her commands in snappy double-time precision. "Queen Murphy," as she is jokingly called, came into the "throne" by right of lawful succession a month ago. This was when her husband, the famous "Big Tim" Murphy, was sentenced to four years at Leavenworth after having been found guilty of participation in the $500,000 Dearborn Street Station mail robbery.

SCHOOL INSURANCE AWARDED BY BOARD

Gold Medals for Brilliant Students, Says Reeve to Esquimalt Body

Fire Insurance to the extent of $33,000 in lapsed policies was renewed by the Esquimalt School Board in session last night, by way of ratification of the action taken by the chairman, Trustee B. Mantrop, in the interval from the adjourned meeting of one week ago.

The following firms benefited with the placing of policies under the amounts as stated: Bishop & Worthington, $5,000; A. S. Horton, $5,000; P. R. Brown, $5,000; and $2,000 each to J. R. Saunders, A. Coles and the B. C. Land and Investment Agency. The insurance is placed on the Lampton Street School to renew policies that had expired.

Reeve's Gold Medals.
Reeve Lockey announced to the meeting that this year he would donate two gold medals, one each to the girl and boy attaining the highest rank in public examinations. Year by year the Reeve has given a gold medal for this purpose, but last year no award was made. To make up for the omission, which was not of his own doing, pointed out the Reeve, he would donate two medals this year. The Reeve was thanked by the chairman on behalf of the board for his generous stand. The medals, it was stated had proved a great incentive to the pupils of the Esquimalt schools.

Classes in Citizenship.
Permission to the Esquimalt Women's Institute to arrange for classes in Civic and Citizenship was granted by the Board upon request. The cost of a dressmaking class just finished was ordered paid. The municipality is refunded the entire cost of these undertakings, it was said, through the Department of Education in the proportion of four-fifths and by the Institute to the extent of the remainder. The classes are to be held in the Parish Hall, Esquimalt.

"Against League of Nations."
"The spirit of the cadet system is against the League of Nations," urged Trustee Parkinson in opposing the grant.
"Esquimalt exists at one time led the Province," pointed out Trustee Sisman in support of the motion, which then carried.

A grant of $25 to the City and District School Sports Committee was made. A grant asked by Principal Sharples, of the High School for sports equipment was received, and the Principal will be asked what amount would meet the needs of that institution for the purpose.

To Present Pictures.
Principal Leonard Tait, of the Lampton Street School, announced that the presentation of eighteen pictures donated by the I. O. D. E. to the school would take place on Friday at 2:30 p. m., urging all to be present. The pictures will be added to a fine gallery already in the possession of the school.

The bi-monthly report of Esquimalt pupils in the City High School was received. "Very creditable," was the comment of the Board, nothing that one girl stood first in her class in the city's institution. Two applications for positions on the teaching staff of Esquimalt schools were received and filed.

Motion Pictures as Educational Factor Held Expensive Luxury

A motion urging investigation into the cost of a plan to introduce motion pictures as an educational factor into the Esquimalt school was rejected by the Esquimalt School Board last night. The matter was broached in a letter from the Esquimalt Parent-Teacher Association which endorsed the project. Motion pictures would be a great benefit to educational training, stated Trustee Mulcahy, and would hold the interest of the pupils in no other way. While admitting that motion pictures in the evening would be of interest to the students he did not think the Board had any money to provide for such a luxury, stated Chairman B. Mantrop. Trustee Sisman and Parkinson shared this view. There was little enough time for the syllabus as it was without frills, stated Trustee Parkinson.

A letter from the same association urging that the Esquimalt High School be continued provoked considerable discussion, not on the proposition, but on what had taken place at the meeting in question. Chairman Mantrop charged that Trustee Mulcahy had made a partisan speech at the meeting. Trustee Mulcahy sustained his right to speak as he saw fit. There was no suggestion of abolishing the High School, returned Chairman Mantrop.
"As a matter of fact there are now only ten more students at the High School than there were in the year 1915, and that is very significant. I would regret very much to see the High School abolished, but we must get the students if we are going to keep it up."

Discussion as to what had been said and what had not been said at the meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association continued until Trustee Sisman called the attention of the Board to the fact that the discussion had strayed away from the business of the Board. Accepting this suggestion the Board agreed to receive and file both communications, and the incident closed.

MORE WORRY FOR ALDERMEN; MUST BUY QUEEN VOTES
Jaded city fathers, who have been arranging lately to spend several million dollars this year, have found something else to worry about now. They have to pay loose ten genuine dollars from their princely salary cheques of $23.25 a month and hand it over to the city fathers who are scouring the city for votes for Miss Black, City Hall candidate for Queen of Democracy.

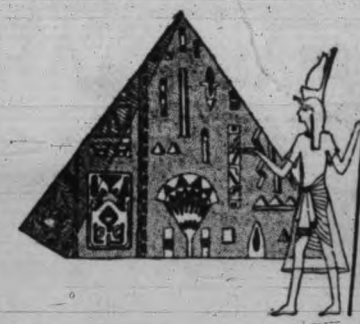

This is the sum fixed by the vote chasers, and Mayor Hayward has set an example by contributing that amount. Two or three other aldermen have done likewise. The rest of the Council however, have been too busy with the city's finances to think about the Mayor's example. As all council members received their salary cheques yesterday, however, it is expected that they will use a little of them to support the Maytime Frolic, says Miss Black's supporters intend to keep after them until they "stand and deliver."

An important citizen must suffer intensely while visiting in another town where people don't know how important he is.
